PROPOSED TARIFF PAGES – EXHIBIT B

2. GENERAL

2.4 BILLING AND PAYMENT FOR SERVICE

2.4.2 BILLING AND COLLECTION OF CHARGES (Cont'd)

- E. Charges for local exchange service and facilities are billed in advance. Payment is due as required by statute or state administrative rules. All bills are payable by any means mutually acceptable to the customer and the Company. Failure to receive a bill does not exempt the customer from prompt payment of their account. The customer is held responsible for all charges for local exchange service and facilities furnished at the customer's request. The Company shall utilize credit policies and reasonable and equitable methods in its debt collection practices as specified by state and federal government regulations.
- F. Billing will be payable upon receipt. Amounts not paid within 30 days after the invoice is rendered will be considered past due. A late payment charge not to exceed the rate of 1.50% per month (unless a lower rate is prescribed by law, in which event at the highest rate allowed by law), may accrue upon any unpaid amount commencing five days after the date the payment is past due. Collection procedures, temporary disconnection of service, and the requirements for deposit are unaffected by the application of a late payment charge.

G. Business Convenience Fee

In the event a business customer makes a one-time payment using a credit card or an electronic funds transfer, a Convenience Fee Charge of $4.00 may apply. Payments for a deposit or advance payment to establish new service are excluded from the Convenience Fee Charge. This charge does not apply to business customers enrolled in automatic payment plans, customers who pay their bill by mail or who use their financial institution's bill payment service, customers with multiple accounts with the Company, customers with service under a contractual arrangement that stipulate that such payments would not be assessed a fee, and customers without a computer. This one-time charge will be added to the customer's next month CenturyLink bill.
