Back to basics — What is health insurance for and why do you need it?

Health insurance covers medical expenses for illnesses, injuries and conditions. But, unlike a plan through an employer, individual health insurance is something you select and pay for on your own. So, what's health insurance for and why do you need it?

- Because accidents or health problems can happen at any time
- Medical expenses can be high—they're the number one cause of bankruptcy

• To gain access to a network of doctors and hospitals that have negotiated lower rates with insurance companies

• To pay and keep track of medical payments quickly and easily

• To safeguard your way of life and your family's physical and financial wellbeing

Understanding Health Insurance Lingo
We know health insurance has its own language with different terms, like "deductibles," "coinsurance" and "copayments." Once you get a good grasp on some of these basic terms, you'll see how simple health insurance can be. Let's start by defining these terms:

Deductible: This is a set amount you have to pay toward your medical bills every year before your insurance company starts paying. It varies by plan and some plans have no deductible.

Premium: This is the amount you pay your health insurance company to keep your coverage active. Most people pay their premium monthly.

Medical bills can wipe out savings: According to a Harvard University study, 62 percent of personal bankruptcies were the result of medical expenses. Many bankruptcy filers in the study had rare or serious injuries, and high medical bills often wiped out their savings, education or retirement funds. Insurance could help to pay some of these bills and protect policyholders from financial distress. This shows how important it is to have health insurance.

Coinsurance: This is the percentage of your medical bill you share with your insurance company after you've paid your deductible. Unless you have a policy with 100 percent coverage for everything, you have to pay a coinsurance amount. For example, if you have a $100 doctor's bill and your plan covers 80 percent of it, your coinsurance amount due to the doctor's office is 20 percent, or $20.

Copayment (or "Copay"): Your copayment, or copay, is the flat fee you pay every time you go to the doctor or fill a prescription. It's usually a relatively small dollar amount. Copays do not count toward your deductible.

There are other insurance terms that may be confusing to you, but starting with these four is a good foundation.

• Kit Murphy has joined the law firm of Bricker & Eckler as chief operating officer.

Kit Murphy

Before joining the firm's leadership team, Murphy served as an executive administrator in a number of industries, including legal services, manufacturing and advertising. She has a strong operations background in primarily closely held businesses. Since 2009, Murphy has served as an adjunct professor at Franklin University.

Murphy is a resident of Dublin.

• The Ohio State University College of Pharmacy has announced that Dublin resident Karl H. Kappeler, MS, RPh, FASHP, is this year's recipient of the Latiolais Award.

Karl H. Kappeler

The Latiolais Award was created by former students to honor Clif Lati-olais, an OSU College of Pharmacy professor who created a hospital pharmacy graduate and residency program.

The award is given to a graduate of the hospital-systems pharmacy administration program or an individual involved with the development of these programs who has made significant contributions to institutional pharmacy practice.

Kappeler has served at Nationwide Children's Hospital for more than 15 years. As chief pharmacy officer, Kappeler leads medication use systems in the 450-bed, free-standing children's hospital and in more than 50 clinics and multiple off-site neonatal intensive care units in Columbus area hospitals.

Kappeler also serves as administrator for the Central Ohio Poison Center, is a clinical assistant professor at OSU's College of Pharmacy, is vice chair of the ASHP Council for Pharmacy Management and is active in the Ohio Society of Health-System Pharmacists.

Kappeler received his MS in health-systems pharmacy administration from Ohio State in 1991. He also holds a BA in biology from Capital University and a BS in pharmacy from the University of Louisiana - Monroe.

The award will be presented to Kappeler Dec. 11 at the annual Latiolais Luncheon at the Midyear Clinical Meeting in Orlando, Fla.

• Cameron Mitchell Restaurants recently announced the recipients of the 2013 Leadership Conference awards, which recognizes outstanding performance. The awards were presented to six associates at the company's 20th annual Leadership Conference held in Las Vegas in early October.

The recipients included Kelli Gordon of Dublin, selected as this year's Dining Room Manager of the Year award honoree. Gordon, a nine-year CMR veteran, was recently promoted to general manager at Cameron's American Bistro in Linworth.

In addition, Jamie Kline of Dublin received the Cameron Mitchell Award, recognizing individuals for their exceptional leadership in the company and for their significant contributions to CMR's success. Kline joined the CMR team in 1995 and serves as regional chef for Cameron Mitchell Premier Events.

• Dublin residents James Sancin and Dorian Legg were recently received promotions in rank with the Columbus Division of Fire.

Sancin was promoted to captain while Legg was promoted to lieutenant. They were scheduled to be recognized at Nov. 8 in promotional ceremony that solidifies their rank with the department.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED MAJOR UTILITY FACILITY

American Transmission Systems, Incorporated (Applicant), a FirstEnergy Company, has filed an application with the Ohio Power Siting Board (Board) in Case No. 13-2112-EL-BTA seeking to amend its certificate of environmental compatibility and public need issued to construct the East Springfield-London-Tangy 138 kV Transmission Line Project in Clark, Delaware, Madison and Union counties, Ohio, approved by the Board in Case Number 11-4884-EL-BTX. The purpose of the Amendment is to adjust the approved route to reflect seven changes. Four changes were requested by property owners. Three changes are requested by the Applicant to avoid impacts to high quality wetlands, avoid stormwater ponds, and accommodate substation engineering design. The adjustments are generally located in the following areas: North and South of U.S. 40 in Clark County, South of State Route 29, Northeast and Southwest of Mitchell Dewitt Road in Union County, West and East of Bell Road in Union County, South of U.S. Highway 42 North in Union County, Northeast and Southwest of Mills Road in Delaware County, and near the Tangy Substation off Bunty Station Road in Delaware County. The Applicant believes the adjustments to the approved route can be reasonably accommodated without significant increased impacts and have therefore proposed the adjustments in the Amendment. In the event one or more of the proposed adjustments are not approved by the Board, the Applicant intends to proceed with constructing that portion of the project on the route previously approved by the Board. More information may be obtained by writing to the offices of the Ohio Power Siting Board, 180 East Broad Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215 or calling the Board at 1-866-270-6772. A copy of the Amendment application is available at the Board's main office at 180 East Broad Street, 11th Floor, Columbus, Ohio 43215. Copies of the Amendment Application have been provided to the Clark County Public Library; Delaware Main Library; Hurt/Battelle Memorial Library; London Public Library; Plain City Public Library; and Marysville Public Library. Interested persons wishing to comment on or raise objections to the proposed Amendment may do so by filing written comments and, if desired, a request for a hearing, specifically referencing Case No. 13-2112-EL-BTA, with the Board within 10 days of the publication of this notice.
