Re: Case No. 12-3254-EL-UNC

Dear Ms. McNeal:

On behalf of Exelon Generation Company LLC and Constellation NewEnergy, Inc. I write to support the first ground for rehearing contained in the December 13 Application for Rehearing of FirstEnergy Solutions Corp. as set forth on pages 2-4 and the same argument in the fourth ground for rehearing contained in the December 13 Application for Rehearing of Ohio Power Company as set forth on pages 22-24. The argument raised in both of those grounds for rehearing is that the November 13, 2013 Opinion and Order should be clarified to make clear that capacity costs should be recovered from non-shopping customers, and not from the winning auction bidders. Granting rehearing on this issue and modifying the decision in this manner will offer clarity and certainty to prospective participants in the upcoming auctions.

Sincerely,

M. Howard Petricoff
