BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF OHIO

In the Matter of the Application of) Ohio Power Company to Adjust)
The Economic Development Cost) Case No. 14-193-EL-RDR Recovery Rider Rates)

SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

Pursuant to Rule 4901-1-24(D) of the Ohio Administrative Code ("O.A.C."), The Timken Company ("Timken") and TimkenSteel Corporation move for a supplemental protective order to keep certain confidential information contained on Schedule No. 2, Schedule No. 2.1, Revised Schedule No. 2.1, Schedule No. 2.1A, Revised Schedule No. 2.1A, Schedule No. 6 and Schedule No. 6.1 attached to the application of Ohio Power Company ("Ohio Power") submitted in this case as confidential and not part of the public record. This Supplemental Motion for Protective Order supersedes the February 5, 2014 Motion for Protective Order filed by The Timken Company.

On February 3, 2014, Ohio Power filed an application in this case to adjust its Economic Development Cost Recovery Rider Rates (EDR). Ohio Power also filed a motion for protective order seeking to protect certain information claimed by Eramet Marietta, Inc.; Globe Metallurgical, Inc.; and Timken to be confidential and proprietary. This information was contained in the confidential/unredacted versions of Schedule Nos. 2, 2.1, 2.1A, 4, 4.1 5, 5.1, 6 and 6.1 supporting the application. Ohio Power submitted three copies of each of these schedules under seal in compliance with Rule 4901-1-24(D) of the Ohio Administrative Code.

This is to certify that the above exhibits are an accurate and complete reproduction of a case file document delivered in the regular course of business
Technician: Arj Date Processed 2/26/14

On February 21, 2014, Ohio Power filed a letter indicating that there was an error on Schedules 1 and 1A in the calculation of the forecast carrying charges and the true-up of the June 2013 through December 2013 estimates to actuals. Ohio Power indicated that the error is corrected in the attached Revised Schedules 1, 1A and Revised Schedules 2 and 2A. The effect of the correction, according to Ohio Power, is a $4,686,884 reduction in the revenue requirement shown on Schedule 1 or a $4,989,970 reduction in the revenue requirement shown on Schedule 1A.

Ohio Power indicated that its filing also included updated typical bill impacts on Schedules 7, 7A, 8 and 8A. It indicated that all of the customer-specific information contained in Schedules 3 through 6.1, remain unaffected. However, Ohio Power indicated that because the revised schedules contain confidential materials, a public version and a confidential version were both being filed (along with a motion for protective order).

The Timken Company and TimkenSteel Corporation file this Supplemental Motion for a Protective Order which supersedes the February 5, 2014 Motion for Protective Order filed by Timken. Timken and TimkenSteel Corporation now seek to protect certain information contained on Schedule No. 2, Schedule No. 2.1, Revised Schedule No. 2.1, Schedule No. 2.1A, Revised Schedule No. 2.1A, Schedule No. 6 and Schedule No. 6.1 attached to the application or the February 21, 2014 supplemental filing in this case.

The reasons underlying this motion are detailed in the attached Memorandum in Support. Consistent with the requirements of the above cited Rule, three (3) unredacted copies of Schedule No. 2, Schedule No. 2.1, Revised Schedule No. 2.1, Schedule No. 2.1A, Revised Schedule No. 2.1A, Schedule No. 6 and Schedule No. 6.1 have been submitted under seal by Ohio Power.

WHEREFORE, Timken and TimkenSteel Corporation respectfully request that its supplemental motion for a protective order be granted and that the unredacted versions of Schedule No. 2, Schedule No. 2.1, Revised Schedule No. 2.1, Schedule No. 2.1A, Revised Schedule No. 2.1A, Schedule No. 6 and Schedule No. 6.1 remain under seal.

Respectfully submitted,

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

On April 27, 2011 in Case No. 10-3066-EL-AEC, The Timken Company (“Timken“) and Ohio Power Company (“Ohio Power“) received approval from the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio (“the Commission“) of a unique arrangement for Timken’s Canton, Ohio facilities. Certain information related to Timken which was proprietary and confidential had been redacted from Timken’s application. The redacted information related to operational data, employment figures, and electric usage and was found to be worthy of a protective order. In the Matter of the Joint Application of The Timken Company and the Ohio Power Company for Approval of a Unique Arrangement for The Timken Company’s Canton, Ohio Facilities, Case No. 10-3066-EL-AEC, Entry dated February 11, 2011 at ¶7.

On February 4, 2014, Ohio Power filed an application, supplemented on February 21, 2014, seeking to adjust its Economic Development Cost Recovery Rider Rates (EDR). As part of the application, Ohio Power submitted under seal copies of various schedules offered in support of its application. Five of those schedules were Schedule No. 2 entitled “Ohio Power Company February 2014 Economic Development Cost Recovery Rider True-Up Calculation of Cumulative Carrying Costs”; Schedule No. 2.1 and Revised Schedule No. 2.1 titled “Ohio Power Company February 2014 Economic Development Cost Recovery Rider True-Up Calculation of Cumulative Carrying Costs”; and Schedule No. 2.1A and Revised Schedule No. 2.1A titled “Ohio Power Company February 2014 Economic Development Cost Recovery Rider True Up Calculation of Cumulative Carrying Costs”. Also included were Schedule No. 6 entitled “Timken Summary of Delta Revenue 2013” and Schedule No. 6.1 titled “Ohio Power Company Estimated Timken Economic Development Revenue for 2014”. Schedule No. 6 and Schedule

No. 6.1, submitted under seal by Ohio Power, contain figures relating to the Timken Manufacturing Complex monthly electric bill, the Timken Technology Center monthly electric bill, the Timken Manufacturing Complex discount authorized in the April 27, 2011 Opinion and Order in Case No. 10-3066, the Timken Technology Center discount as per the April 27, 2011 Opinion and Order in Case No. 10-3066, and the monthly Delta Revenue for the Manufacturing Complex and the Technology Center of Timken. Schedule No. 2, Schedule No. 2.1, Revised Schedule No. 2.1, Schedule No. 2.1A and Revised Schedule No. 2.1A redacted and submitted under seal by Ohio Power contain Timken's estimated and actual delta revenue for 2013. All of the Timken specific and redacted information on Schedule No. 2, Schedule No. 2.1, Revised Schedule No. 2.1, Schedule No. 2.1A, Revised Schedule No. 2.1A, Schedule No. 6 and Schedule No. 6.1 are confidential, sensitive, and proprietary and constitutes trade secret information for which Timken and TimkenSteel Corporation are seeking a supplemental motion for a protective order.

Timken manufactures specialty steel and roller bearings at its Canton, Ohio facility. TimkenSteel Corporation will be manufacturing specialty steel at the Canton, Ohio facility after a corporate restructuring is implemented. The specialty steel and roller bearing products are, and will continue to be, sold in an international market that is very competitive. The confidential information contained on Schedule No. 2, Schedule No. 2.1, Revised Schedule No. 2.1, Schedule No. 2.1A, Revised Schedule No. 2.1A, Schedule No. 6 and Schedule No. 6.1, if released to the public, would harm Timken and TimkenSteel Corporation by providing its domestic and international competitors with proprietary information concerning the cost, physical limits and nature of the manufacturing process at the Canton facility. Rule 4901-1-24(D) of the Ohio Administrative Code provides that the Commission or certain designated employees may issue an order which is necessary to protect the confidentiality of information contained in documents filed with the Commission's Docketing Division to the extent that state or federal law prohibits the release of the information and where non-disclosure of the information is not inconsistent with the purposes of Title 49 of the Revised Code. State law recognizes the need to protect certain types of information which are the subject of this motion. The non-disclosure of the information will not impair the purposes of Title 49. The Commission and its Staff have full access to the information in order to fulfill its statutory obligations. No purpose of Title 49 would be served by the public disclosure of the information.

The need to protect the designated information from public disclosure is clear, and there is compelling legal authority supporting the requested protective order. While the Commission has often expressed its preference for open proceedings, the Commission also long ago recognized its statutory obligations with regard to trade secrets:

The Commission is of the opinion that the "public records" statute must also be read in pari materia with Section 1333.31, Revised Code ("trade secrets" statute). The latter statute must be interpreted as evincing the recognition, on the part of the General Assembly, of the value of trade secret information.

In re: General Telephone Co., Case No. 81-383-TP-AIR (Entry, February 17, 1982.) Likewise, the Commission has facilitated the protection of trade secrets in its rules (O.A.C. 4901-1-24(A)(7)).

The definition of a "trade secret" is set forth in the Uniform Trade Secrets Act:

"Trade secret" means information, including the whole or any portion or phase of any scientific or technical information, design, process, procedure, formula, patter, compilation, program, device, method, technique, or improvement, or any business information or plans, financial information or listing of names, addresses, or telephone numbers, that satisfies both of the following:

(1) It derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use.

(2) It is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.

R.C. § 1333.61(D). This definition clearly reflects the state policy favoring the protection of trade secrets such as the sensitive information which is the subject of this motion.

In State ex rel The Plain Dealer the Ohio Dept. of Ins. (1997), 80 Ohio St. 3d 513, the Ohio Supreme Court adopted a six factor test to analyze whether information is a trade secret under the statute:

(1) The extent to which the information is known outside the business, (2) the extent to which it is known to those inside the business, i.e., by the employees, (3) the precautions taken by the holder of the trade secret to guard the secrecy of the information, (4) the savings effected and the value to the holder in having the information as against competitors, (5) the amount of effort or money expended in obtaining and developing the information, and (6) the amount of time and expense it would take for others to acquire and duplicate the information.

Id. at 524-525 (quoting Pyromatics, Inc. v. Petruziello, 7 Ohio App. 3d 131, 134-135 (Cuyahoga County 1983)).

Applying these factors to the confidential information Timken and TimkenSteel Corporation seek to protect, it is clear that a protective order should be granted. The information redacted from Schedule No. 6 and Schedule No. 6.1 attached to the application of Ohio Power contains information regarding the Timken Manufacturing Complex monthly electric bill, the Timken Technology Center monthly electric bill, the Timken Manufacturing Complex discount monthly bill, the Timken Technology Center discount monthly bill, and the monthly Delta Revenues for the Timken Manufacturing Complex and the Timken Technology Center.

Schedule No. 2, Schedule No. 2.1, Revised Schedule No. 2.1, Schedule No. 2.1A and Revised Schedule No. 2.1A contain estimated and actual delta revenue data that reflects usage at Timken's and TimkenSteel Corporation's facilities. Such sensitive information is generally not disclosed. Its disclosure could give competitors an advantage that would hinder Timken's ability to compete and TimkenSteel Corporation's ability to compete.

Courts of other jurisdictions have held that not only does a public utilities commission have the authority to protect the trade secrets of the companies subject to its jurisdiction, the trade secrets statute creates a duty to protect them. New York Tel. Co. v. Pub. Serv. Comm., N.Y., 56 N.Y. 2d 213 (1982). Indeed, for the Commission to do otherwise would be to negate the protections the Ohio General Assembly has granted to all businesses, including public utilities. Notably, this Commission previously granted protective treatment of the same type of information provided in the schedules that are in Ohio Power's application.¹ The Commission also granted a motion by Timken seeking protective treatment of certain confidential information related to its Canton Facility, including Timken's cost of electricity, in Case No. 10-3066-EL-AEC. In the Matter of the Joint Application of The Timken Company and the Ohio Power Company for Approval of a Unique Arrangement for The Timken Company's Canton, Ohio Facilities, Case No. 10-3066-EL-AEC, Entry dated February 11, 2011 at ¶7.

WHEREFORE, for the above reasons Timken and TimkenSteel Corporation request that the Commission grant the motion for protective orders by Ohio Power and the supplemental motion for protective order filed by Timken and TimkenSteel Corporation, and to maintain the
