There are no proposed revised tariff sheets to be filed on behalf of Time Warner Cable Business LLC.

EXHIBIT C

DESCRIPTION OF THE PARTIES

Time Warner Cable Business LLC d/b/a Time Warner Cable

Time Warner Cable Business LLC (TWCB) is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Time Warner Cable, Inc (Time Warner Cable). TWCB is a Delaware limited liability company authorized to do business in Ohio as a foreign limited liability company. By means of a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity, Certificate No. 90-6412, issued in Commission Case No. 13-1217-TP-ACE on July 19, 2013, TWCB is authorized in Ohio to provide interexchange services throughout the state. TWCB is a facilities-based interexchange carrier which provides interexchange telecommunications services to the public.

Time Warner Cable is a publicly traded Delaware corporation with its headquarters located at 60 Columbus Circle, New York, New York 10023. It is a leading provider of video, high-speed data, and voice services to residential and business customers in the United States. Time Warner Cable's network facilities cover portions of 31 states, including Ohio.

Comcast Corporation

Comcast Corporation (Comcast) is a publicly traded corporation organized under the laws of Pennsylvania. Its principal offices are located at One Comcast Center, Philadelphia, PA 19103-2838. Comcast is a global media and technology company with network facilities covering portions of 39 states and the District of Columbia. Comcast is a leading provider of video, high-speed Internet, digital voice, and other next-generation services and technologies to residential customers and small- and medium-sized businesses. Having consistently invented, developed, deployed, and improved a wide range of new technologies and services, Comcast has established a reputation as an industry leader in communications, technology, financial performance, and operational efficiency.

Through its subsidiaries, Comcast currently provides voice services to approximately 10.85 million customers, including residential and business subscribers. Using VoIP technology, Comcast provides competitive facilities-based voice services to deliver digital-quality phone service, plus enhanced features that are integrated with other Comcast services.

To the extent relevant to the instant application, one Comcast subsidiary, Comcast Phone of Ohio, LLC d/b/a Comcast Digital Phone d/b/a CIMCO, a Division of Comcast Business Services (Comcast Phone of Ohio) is currently authorized to provide competitive local exchange services in certain telephone exchanges in Ohio, and provide competitive telecommunication services throughout Ohio.¹ Comcast Phone of Ohio is a separately operated subsidiary of Comcast and this transaction does not affect its operating status. The transaction will not create a diminishment of competition as each company provides specialized services to a distinct class of customers.²

¹ See Comcast Phone of Ohio's Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity, Certificate No. 90-9216, issued on June 29, 2010, pursuant to PUCO Case No. 10-702-TP-ACN.

² Comcast has identified one ZIP code in Ohio in which Comcast and Time Warner Cable both serve customers, but the total number of customers served by both companies in these areas is de minimis.

EXHIBIT D

DESCRIPTION OF AND RATIONALE FOR THE INVOLVED TRANSACTION, INCLUDING PUBLIC INTEREST CONSIDERATIONS

On February 12, 2014, Comcast entered into an agreement with Time Warner Cable to acquire 100 percent of Time Warner Cable's equity in exchange for Comcast Class A shares (CMCSA). The proposed transaction is a straightforward acquisition of Time Warner Cable. As illustrated in the pre- and post-merger structure charts attached immediately following this description, at the closing of the transaction, Tango Acquisition Sub, Inc. (Merger Sub), a new direct wholly owned subsidiary of Comcast, will merge with Time Warner Cable under Delaware law. At that time, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease, and, thereafter, Time Warner Cable will be a wholly owned subsidiary of Comcast. Contemporaneously with the merger, each Time Warner cable share will be converted into the right to receive 2.875 shares of CMCSA.

Upon completion of the transaction, TWCB will become an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Comcast as an operating entity in Ohio.³ See attached corporate structure diagrams. This Application does not seek authority for the transfer of customers or for any changes in rates, terms, or conditions of service.⁴ It is therefore anticipated that the change in ownership of TWCB will be seamless. TWCB customers will still take service from TWCB after the completion of the transaction. Given that customers will not be affected by the transaction, customer notice is not required.

Comcast is a financially strong, publicly traded corporation that is well positioned to effectively manage TWCB in Ohio. In 2013, Comcast saw an increase in consolidated revenue of 3.3 percent to $64.7 billion and an increase in consolidated operating income of 11.4 percent to $13.6 billion; revenues from voice services increased 2.8 percent to $3.6 billion.⁵

Comcast also has expert technological and service capabilities as a communications provider. Comcast's experience includes an array of communications of broadband service, including local and long distance voice (using VoIP technology), broadband data and video, and a host of advance technology and other service offerings. Moreover, Comcast invests heavily in network infrastructure in its markets—exceeding tens of billions since 1996—to provide a robust network for today's needs that is capable of evolving to meet tomorrow's consumer and business demands.

⁴ After closing this transaction, if Comcast wishes to make additional changes that require regulatory approval or filings, such as changes to d/b/a names, rates, terms, or conditions of service, or transfers of customers, Comcast will follow applicable Ohio filing and notice requirements associated with such changes.

Based on its consistent commitment to innovation and advancement, Comcast has been recognized by Fortune Magazine in its survey of the World's Most Admired Companies, ranking first among cable and satellite providers. Comcast's commitment to providing cutting-edge broadband services recently earned it a 2013 Best Practice Award from Frost and Sullivan, which ranked Comcast first among all North American broadband providers in "Technology Innovation."

As an experienced service provider, Comcast also has long-established relationships with peer companies, partners, suppliers, regulators, and customers. Comcast's technological capabilities, its service record, its commitment to investment, and its solid balance sheet will ensure that Time Warner Cable's customers will continue to receive the same or higher quality products and services than they currently enjoy. In addition, Comcast has significant managerial capability and experience as a top-tier communications service provider, which will benefit Time Warner Cable customers.⁶

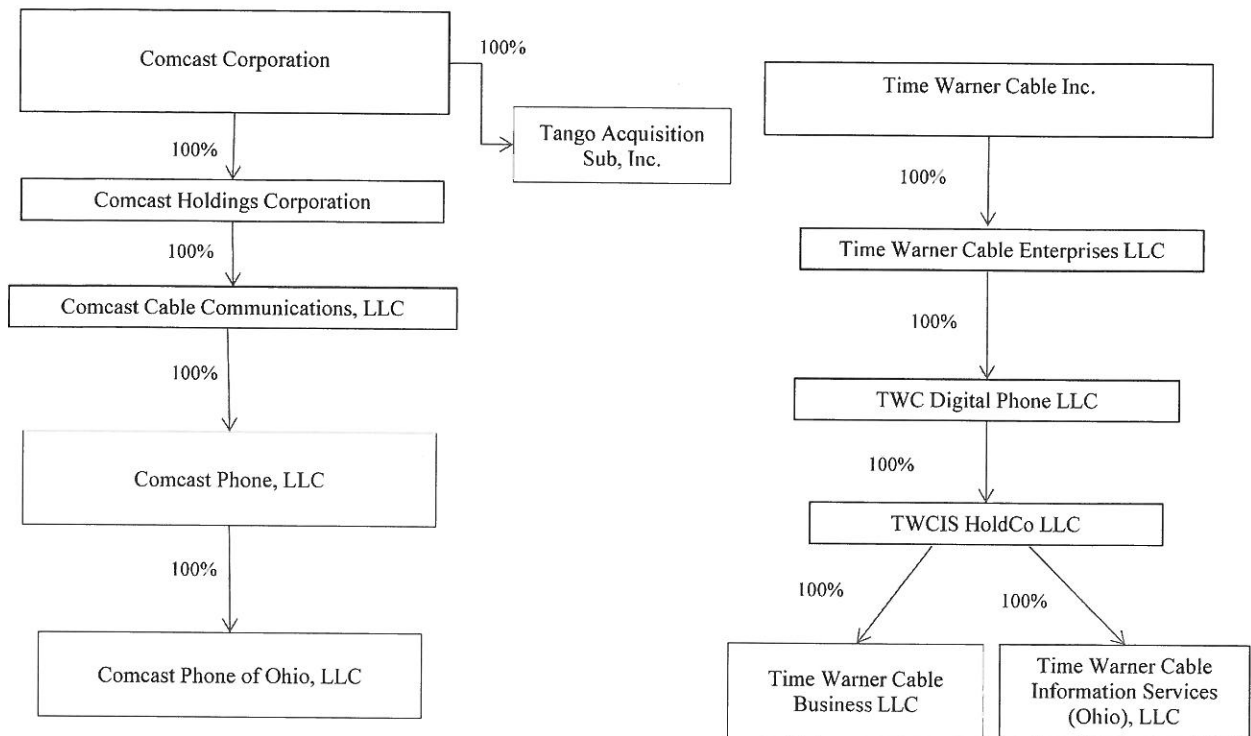

The proposed transaction will generate substantial public interest benefits with no countervailing harms. TWCB will offer interexchange services in Ohio at the same rates and pursuant to the same terms following consummation of the transaction.⁷ The transaction will promote the deployment of advanced interexchange services. By permitting Comcast and Time Warner Cable to combine the best aspects of their robust and innovative communications services, approval of this transaction will leave the merged company even better suited to offer an array of advanced services in competition with other similarly situated providers.

Approval of this transaction will provide communications customers in Ohio with a more robust competitor in the marketplace, leading to improved services and choices for consumers. Further, businesses of all sizes in Ohio will benefit from a substantial increase in much-needed competition and the accelerated deployment of advanced services. The transaction will produce significant public interest benefits by creating a combined company with a larger overall national footprint that can actively compete in the business sector to fulfill customers' integrated communication needs.
