MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO INTERVENE

Ohio Partners for Affordable Energy (“OPAE”) should be permitted to intervene in these matters pursuant to Section 4903.22.1, Revised Code, and the Commission’s Rules and Regulations contained in Rule 4901-01-11 of the Ohio Administrative Code. The above-referenced applications are requests of Duke Energy Ohio, Inc., (“Duke”) for authority to establish a standard service offer in the form of an electric security plan, accounting methods, and tariffs for generation service and authority to amend its certified supplier tariff.

In determining whether to permit intervention, the following criteria are to be considered: the nature of the person’s interest; the extent to which that interest is represented by existing parties; the person’s potential contribution to a just and expeditious resolution of the proceeding; and, whether granting the intervention will unduly delay or unjustly prejudice any existing party. OPAE meets all four criteria for intervention in these applications.

OPAE is an Ohio non-profit corporation with a stated purpose of advocating for affordable energy policies for low and moderate income Ohioans; as such, OPAE has a real and substantial interest in these matters, which will address Duke's request for approval of an electric security plan for standard service offer generation supply. Additionally, OPAGE includes as members non-profit organizations located in the service area that will be affected by these applications.¹ Moreover, many of OPAGE's members are community action agencies. Under the federal legislation authorizing the creation and funding of these agencies, originally known as the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964, community action is charged with advocating for low-income residents of their communities.

OPAGE also provides essential services in the form of bill payment assistance programs and weatherization and energy efficiency services to low income residential customers of Duke. OPAGE member organizations are also non-residential ratepayers of Duke.

OPAGE's primary interest in these cases is to protect the interests of low and moderate income Ohioans and OPAGE members whose provision of electric generation service will be affected by these applications. Further, OPAGE has been recognized by the Commission in the past as an advocate for consumers and particularly low-income consumers, who will be affected by the outcome of these cases.

For the above reasons, OPAGE has a direct, real and substantial interest in these matters. The disposition of these matters may impair or impede OPAGE's ability to protect its interests. No other party to the matters will adequately represent the interests of OPAGE. OPAGE is a rare organization that serves as an advocate, service provider and non-profit customer group. No other party represents this group of interests. OPAGE's participation in these matters will not cause undue delay, will not unjustly prejudice any existing party, and will contribute to the just and expeditious resolution of the issues raised by these applications.

Therefore, OPAE is entitled to intervene in these applications with the full powers and rights granted by statute and by the provisions of the Commission's Codes of Rules and Regulations to intervening parties.
