What is Governmental Aggregation and how can I benefit?

Under governmental aggregation, local officials bring the community together for improved group purchasing power. The community benefits, receiving a contract to help secure natural gas from a reliable natural gas supplier certified by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio.

How is the City of Marietta able to choose a certified natural gas supplier on the community's behalf and who is eligible?

Marietta residents voted to give the City of Marietta the ability to represent on behalf of the community for a contract for a natural gas supplier.

All current participants in the program will receive notice of the new program rates, terms and conditions and continue to be eligible. Newly eligible residents or businesses must have received an offer of induction from Constellation and meet the following requirements:

1. You must have already chosen a natural gas supplier on your own.
2. You must be at least 18 years old and a resident of the City of Marietta.
3. You must not be married to anyone living in the City of Marietta.
4. Your service address must be located within the City of Marietta limits.
5. Your utility company must be Constellation Energy.
6. You must not be a residential customer (natural gas central air conditioning, etc.)

What does "opt-out" mean?

"Opt-out" means that you can decide not to participate in the City of Marietta natural gas governmental aggregation program. You can opt-out by returning the enclosed form to the City of Marietta, or through the website using the pre-numbered packet. If you opt-out, you will not be enrolled as a natural gas customer with Constellation, but will not receive the City of Marietta contract for the natural gas price.

What happens if I do not send in the opt-out form?

If you do not return the opt-out form to the City of Marietta, you will be included in the City of Marietta governmental aggregation program and receive competitively priced natural gas from Constellation.

I am currently under the budget billing option as provided by DEO. Can I retain this service?

There will be no changes to your bill as they relate to budget billing and the methodology utilized by DEO to calculate the same.

Who is Constellation?

Your decision to enter into this Agreement and any other decisions or actions you may take are and will be based solely upon your own analysis (or that of your advisors) and not on information or statements from us. There is no guarantee that the program you chose will guarantee any price advantage or savings.

17. Confidentiality. Consistent with applicable regulatory requirements, we will hold in confidence all information obtained by us from you related to the provision of services under this Agreement and which concern your energy characteristics and use patterns, except that we may disclose such information to our affiliates (excluding Baltimore Gas & Electric, a regulated utility) and such affiliates' employees, agents, advisors, and independent contractors. Constellation shall have the right to set-off and net any amounts owed to Customer against any amounts owed to it by Customer under this Agreement or any other agreement. This Agreement is a "forward contract" and Constellation is a "forward contract merchant" under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, as amended. Further, we are not providing advice regarding "commodity interests", including futures contracts and commodity options or any other matter, which would cause us to be a commodity trading advisor under the U.S. Commodity Exchange Act, as amended ("CEA"). Customer's purpose in entering into this Agreement is not speculation, but rather price volatility control and/or budget management for procurement of natural gas for one or more of its facilities. Customer represents that it qualifies as an "eligible contract participant" as the same is defined under the CEA. The terms of any purchase order (PO) you send to us or any alterations, additions, or modifications you make to the preprinted terms of this Agreement shall be void and without any effect unless and only to the extent we agree in writing to such alterations, additions, or modifications.
