THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF OHIO

In the Matter of the Filing of Annual) Reports for Calendar Year 2013 by all) Case No. 14-01-AU-RPT Regulated Entities.)

ENTRY ON REHEARING

The Commission finds:

- (1) On August 20, 2014, the Commission issued a Finding and Order that, inter alia, revoked the certificates of five certificate holders for failure to pay the assessed amount for calendar year 2013.
- (2) On August 25, 2014, Broadvox-CLEC, LLC (Broadvox or Company), one of the certificate holders listed for revocation, filed an application for rehearing of the August 20, 2014 Finding and Order. Broadvox submits that it is unreasonable to revoke a certificate where the failure of the regulated entity to remit payment of its annual assessment was obviously an oversight and where the amount due was nominal. Further, such an extraordinary sanction would result in irreparable harm to Broadvox and in a disruption to its customers, including other carriers that rely on service provided by Broadvox pursuant to interconnection agreements or tariffs the Company claims. To prevent disruption of service to its customers, Broadvox requests a special order, pursuant to R.C. 4903.10(B), staying the revocation of its certificate until such time as the Commission has an opportunity to consider its application for rehearing.
- (3) R.C. 4903.10 states that any party who has entered an appearance in a Commission proceeding may apply for a rehearing with respect to any matters determined therein by filing an application within 30 days after the entry of the order upon the Commission's journal.
- (4) The Commission believes that sufficient reason has been set forth to warrant further consideration of the matters specified in the application for rehearing. Accordingly, the application for rehearing filed by Broadvox on August 25, 2014, is granted for further consideration of the matters specified in the application for rehearing. Additionally, the revocation of Broadvox's certificate will be taken up in a future order.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED, That the application for rehearing filed by Broadvox be granted for further consideration of the matters specified in the application for rehearing. It is, further,

ORDERED, That a copy of this Entry on Rehearing be served upon Broadvox-CLEC, LLC.
