COMMENTS: After recently talking with a very good friend of mine that lives close to Johnstown, Pa. SHE brought up the subject of moving to Ebensburg, Pa. to be closer to her aging mother but she made note that she hated to do that because she didnt want to deal with the wind turbines. Of course I asked her reason for her concern was and she said the satellite and phone reception was always being messed up since the turbines were put in....Just another concern I have added to the list that point towards my property that I worked my butt off to build and enjoy wont be worth 1/2 or maybe nothing of what it is today!!! I am not for taking that chance....I hope people will stop and think as we really need to weigh all the pros and cons of this matter! thanks
