<sup>1</sup> References to Duke Energy Ohio as used in this Motion for Subpoena include any person or entity acting on behalf of Duke Energy Ohio.

<sup>2</sup> It is OCC's understanding that Charles Whitlock will be able to testify on this subject matter. OCC is issuing this corporate subpoena in the event that Mr. Whitlock lacks the necessary knowledge and expertise to testify regarding this subject.

<sup>3</sup> It is OCC's understanding that, pursuant to OCC's Notices of Deposition issued on July 28, 2014 and September 17, 2014, Bryan Dougherty, Ben Zhang, and Ken Jennings were produced to respond to OCC's request for corporate deponents on these same matters. OCC is issuing this corporate subpoena in the event that the identified witnesses lack the necessary knowledge and expertise to testify regarding this subject.

familiar with assumptions, calculations, and workpapers underlying such estimates.<sup>4</sup>

The subpoena also compels the witnesses to bring with them, and provide to OCC at 9:30 a.m. on October 22, 2014:

- (1) All documents relating to responses to discovery that were authored by the witness or were provided to OCC with input from the witness;
- (2) To the extent the witness is testifying to the matters described in paragraph 5(a) above, all documents relating to such matters, including:
  - a. All documents related to Duke's request(s) (including requests for consent) to sell or transfer ownership<sup>5</sup> of all or part of its OVEC interest to an affiliate or third party since January 1, 2012;
  - b. All documents related to OVEC Board Meeting minutes (including resolutions) that pertain to consideration of Duke's sale or transfer its ownership shares of OVEC to an affiliate or third party, since January 1, 2012;

<sup>4</sup> It is OCC's understanding that, pursuant to OCC's Notices of Deposition issued on July 28, 2014 and September 17, 2014, Bryan Dougherty, Ben Zhang, and Ken Jennings were produced to respond to OCC's request for corporate deponents on these same matters.. OCC is issuing this corporate subpoena in the event that the identified witnesses lack the necessary knowledge and expertise to testify regarding this subject.

<sup>5</sup> "Ownership" or "ownership shares" as used here includes all rights, title , interests, and obligations as used in Section 9.18 (and its subsections) of the ICPA.

- c. All OVEC committee or subcommittee meeting minutes pertaining to consideration of Duke's sale or transfer of Duke's ownership shares of OVEC to an affiliate or third party since January 1, 2012;
  - d. All communications between OVEC (including OVEC's Board of Directors) and OVEC sponsoring companies pertaining to consideration of a sale or transfer of Duke's ownership shares of OVEC to an affiliate or third party, since January 1, 2012;
  - e. All communications between and among sponsoring companies pertaining to consideration of Duke's sale or transfer of ownership shares of OVEC to an affiliate or third party, since January 1, 2012;
  - f. All documents pertaining to any vote or poll that occurred among the Sponsoring Companies pertaining to Duke's request to sell or transfer its ownership shares of OVEC to an affiliate or third party, since January 1, 2012.
- (3) To the extent the witness is testifying to the matters set forth in paragraphs 5(b) or 5(c) above, all documents related to the estimates as referenced under paragraphs 5(b) and 5(c) and documents showing assumptions, calculations, and workpapers underlying such estimates that were prepared by the witness or were prepared under the witness's direction or supervision.

Grounds for this Motion are set forth in the accompanying Memorandum in Support.

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR SUBPOENA DUCES TECUM
BY THE OFFICE OF THE OHIO CONSUMERS' COUNSEL

In this proceeding Duke Energy Ohio ("Duke") is seeking to charge its customers, through its proposed Price Stabilization Rider ("PSR"), the difference between the market value of its interest in Ohio Valley Electric Corporation ("OVEC") and its 9% share of OVEC costs for the duration of its OVEC entitlement, which is currently through 2040. Under Duke's PSR, Duke is asking that the PUCO require customers to guarantee its profits on its generating units (Duke Energy Ohio's OVEC interest) that are supposed to be no longer regulated but subject to the forces of competition.

In accordance with R.C. 4928.17(A) and the Stipulation in Duke's last ESP proceeding,<sup>6</sup> Duke was required to transfer its generation assets by the end of 2014. For contractual obligations arising before the signing of the Stipulation, Duke was permitted to retain its interest "but only to the extent that assuming or transferring such obligations is prohibited by the terms of the contract or would result in substantially increased liabilities for Duke Energy Ohio if Duke Energy Ohio were to transfer such obligations to its subsidiary or affiliate." Consequently, Duke was required to make a good faith effort to transfer its interest in OVEC that underlies its claim for the PSR. Since Duke is seeking approval of its PSR in this case, the PUCO should consider whether good faith efforts were made by Duke to sell or transfer its OVEC interest. OCC's requested subpoenas for Mr. Whitlock, Duke's representative on the OVEC Board of Directors and for a witness described under paragraph 5(a) is intended to provide for testimony regarding this subject matter.

The merits of Duke's PSR should also be evaluated, for purposes of the "better in the aggregate test" under R.C. 4928.143(C)(1), based on the estimated net costs or benefits of the proposed PSR, including evaluation of the economic value of capacity and energy from OVEC. OCC's requested subpoenas directed to Mr. Dougherty, Mr. Zhang, and Mr. Jennings, and the corporate subpoenaed witness under paragraph 5(b)
