ENTRY ON REHEARING

The Commission finds:

- (1) Ohio Edison Company, The Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company, and The Toledo Edison Company (collectively, FirstEnergy) are public utilities as defined under R.C. 4905.02 and, as such, are subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission.
- (2) On September 24, 2014, FirstEnergy filed an application to amend its energy efficiency and peak demand reduction program portfolio plans for 2015 through 2016, pursuant to Section 6 of 2014 Sub.S.B. No. 310 (S.B. 310).
- (3) On November 20, 2014, the Commission issued its Finding and Order (Order) in this case. Pursuant to the Order, the Commission granted FirstEnergy's application to amend its energy efficiency and peak demand reduction program portfolio plans for 2015 through 2016, subject to the modifications set forth in the Order.
- (4) Pursuant to R.C. 4903.10, any party who has entered an appearance in a Commission proceeding may apply for rehearing with respect to any matters determined by the Commission, within 30 days of the entry of the order upon the Commission's journal.
- (5) On December 22, 2014, FirstEnergy, the Ohio Consumers' Counsel (OCC), The Ohio Manufacturers' Association Energy Group (OMAEG), and the Environmental Law & Policy Center (ELPC), Ohio Environmental Council, Sierra Club, and Natural Resources Defense Council (Environmental Groups) filed applications for rehearing regarding the Order. FirstEnergy, Environmental Groups, and OCC subsequently filed memoranda contra the applications for rehearing on January 2, 2015. ELPC and Sierra Club filed an additional memorandum contra FirstEnergy's application for rehearing on January 8, 2015.

- (6) The Commission finds that sufficient reason has been set forth by the parties in their applications for rehearing to warrant further consideration of the matters specified in the applications for rehearing. Accordingly, the applications for rehearing filed by the parties should be granted for further consideration of the matters specified in the applications for rehearing.

It is, therefore,

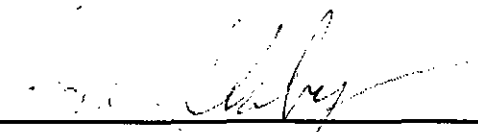

ORDERED, That the applications for rehearing filed by FirstEnergy, OCC, OMAEG, and Environmental Groups be granted for further consideration of the matters specified in the applications for rehearing. It is, further,

ORDERED, That a copy of this Entry on Rehearing be served upon all parties of record.
