ENTRY

The attorney examiner finds:

- (1) By Entry issued March 10, 2015, a hearing in this case is currently scheduled to occur at the Commission's offices on April 21, 2015.
- (2) The Complainant has recently informed the attorney examiner that he is currently experiencing temporary health/mobility issues that will prevent him from attending the scheduled hearing. He requests that the hearing be postponed for an indefinite period; and later, rescheduled to occur on an as yet to be determined date.
- (3) The attorney examiner finds that the Complainant's request is reasonable and should be granted. Accordingly, by this Entry, the hearing in this case scheduled to occur on April 21, 2015, is cancelled. A new hearing date will be established by a separate Entry that, unless the case is settled in the meantime, can be expected to be issued in the future.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED, That the hearing scheduled to occur in this case on April 21, 2015, is cancelled. A new hearing date will be established by a separate Entry that can be expected to be issued in the future. It is, further,

ORDERED, That a copy of this Entry be served upon all parties of record.
