MOTION OF DUKE ENERGY OHIO, INC., TO EXTEND PROTECTIVE ORDER

In connection with attorney examiner's ruling granting the Duke Energy Ohio, Inc., (Duke Energy Ohio or the Company) motion for protective order (Protective Order) in this proceeding on January 30, 2012 and pursuant to O.A.C. 4901-1-24(F), Duke Energy Ohio hereby moves to extend the Protective Order to continue the confidential treatment of specific information included in the Office of the Ohio Consumers' Counsel's (OCC) Exhibits 11-14; and, Duke Energy Ohio's Exhibit 8 and 10. Duke Energy filed its first Motion to Extend Protective Order (Motion) on May 30, 2012 and a subsequent Motion to Extend Protective Order on December 3, 2013. As more fully described below, this confidential information contains trade secret information and continues to merit protection. Thus, through this Motion, the Company is seeking an Order continuing protection of the confidential material described herein for another eighteen-month period, through approximately November 2016.

Duke Energy Ohio sets forth, in the attached Memorandum in Support, the reasons why protective treatment of the Confidential Information is necessary. Ohio law prohibits the release of the Confidential Information, and nondisclosure of the Confidential Information is not inconsistent with Title 49 of the Revised Code. The confidential Information as sensitive and proprietary today as it was on the date of the attorney examiner's original ruling and it will continue to be extremely sensitive and confidential throughout its existence. Therefore, in the interest of administrative efficiency, and with the understanding that public disclosure of the Confidential Information will not, after a short time period, be harmless to the Company, its employees, or contractors, "Duke Energy Ohio respectfully requests that the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio (Commission) extend the Protective Order for a period of ten years.

Respectfully submitted,

DUKE ENERGY OHIO, INC.

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

Duke Energy Ohio respectfully requests that the Commission extend the protection of the Confidential Information included in the OCC Exhibits 11-14 and the Company Exhibits 8 and 10 in the proceeding hereunder. The information for which protection was orally granted on May 26, 2010, and for which the Company seeks an extension of that protection, constitutes trade secret information and, therefore, requires continued protection from disclosure.

R.C. 1333.61(D) provides, in pertinent part:

“Trade secret” means information, including . . . any business information or plans, financial information, or listing of names, addresses, or telephone numbers, that satisfies both of the following:

- (1) It derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use.
- (2) It is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy. [Emphasis added.]

Further, the Supreme Court of Ohio adopted six factors to be used in determining whether a trade secret claim meets the statutory definition:¹

- (1) The extent to which the information is known outside the business;
- (2) The extent to which it is known to those inside the business, i.e., by the employees;
- (3) The precautions taken by the holder of the trade secret to guard the secrecy of the information;
- (4) The savings affected and the value to the holder in having the information as against competitors;
- (5) The amount of effort or money expended in obtaining and developing the information; and
- (6) The amount of time and expense it would take for others to acquire and duplicate the information.

¹ State ex rel. The Plain Dealer v. Ohio Dept. of Ins. (1997), 80 Ohio St.3d 513, 524-25, 1997-Ohio-75.

The Confidential Information, for which the attorney examiner found warranted protection, included employee code numbers, vendor names; employee ID(s), employee names, specific position description titles, contractor names, any telephone number or address that would reference a contractor. Such information, as reflected in OCC Exhibits 11-14 and Duke Energy Ohio Exhibits 8 and 10 is valuable in that it is not readily ascertainable within or outside Duke Energy Ohio. Indeed, very few individuals within the Company have access to the pertinent Confidential Information contained within OCC Exhibits 11-14 and Duke Energy Ohio Exhibits 8 and 10. The Confidential Information is closely guarded by the Company, as it contains personally identifiable and other economically valuable information. The Company has expended a significant amount of time and resources in developing the Confidential Information. Moreover, disclosure of the Confidential Information would harm the Company's competitive position in the marketplace. Accordingly, the Confidential Information for which the Company seeks continued protective treatment is trade secret information.

The protection of trade secret information from public disclosure is consistent with the purposes of R.C. Title 49. In the event that the Commission or its Staff requires access to the information, it will continue to be available to them. Given the nature of the information, however, it is rather unlikely that either party would need to access the confidential portions of OCC Exhibits 11-14 and Duke Energy Ohio Exhibits 8 and 10. The public, redacted version provides a comprehensive view of the issues discussed in his testimony. As such, granting continued protection of the Confidential Information will not impair the regulatory responsibilities incumbent upon the Commission or Staff.

Because the information for which Duke Energy Ohio seeks protection is largely personal in nature, it will not likely be appropriate for disclosure at any point in the future; thus, the Company anticipates that, under the existing protective order renewal framework, it will be administratively burdensome for it to file continuances, and for the Commission to issue orders, every eighteen months to continue to protect the information at issue. The Company therefore respectfully requests that the Commission lengthen the period of protection for the Confidential Information to ten years.

In view of these circumstances, continued confidential treatment of the Confidential Information contained in OCC Exhibits 11-14 and Duke Energy Ohio Exhibits 8 and 10 is appropriate, and is require by Ohio law and the Commission's regulations. For the foregoing reasons, Duke Energy Ohio respectfully requests that the Commission grant its Motion to Extend the Protective Order pursuant to O.A.C. 4901-1-24(F), and extend the period of protection to last ten years.

Respectfully submitted,

DUKE ENERGY OHIO, INC.
