Reference: Maxwalton Glen Case No. 14-2172-WW-COI

Dear Mr. Jones,

Staff has been in contact with James Boyd, son of the last consumer of water on the Maxwalton Glen Water System. He has verified that his mother, the last consumer, has dug her own water well and therefore have her own water supply.

Staff sent a certified letter to William Hardin, owner of the water system, asking if any customers remained on the Maxwalton Glen Water System. Mr. Hardin was asked to notify Staff by November 2, 2015 if any customers remained. That letter was received by Mrs. Hardin on October 10, 2015. No response was received.

Staff concludes that Maxwalton Glen Water System is not engaged in the business of supplying water through pipes or tubing to consumers within this state. Therefore Staff recommends that this case be closed.

Sincerely,

Sue Daly
Senior Utility Specialist
