Mark A. Fares Request for Reschedule

In Entry nunc pro tunc dated October 20, 2015 the Attorney examiner for the PUCO scheduled a procedural teleconference to take place on October 27th, 2015. This was a corrected entry for a previous entry scheduling a procedural teleconference on October 26th, 2015.

Complainant in this matter was unable to participate, and failed to participate in the scheduled conference. This was unintentional, and the result of medical and health issues, and circumstances beyond complainant's control, as well as confusion related to the medical issues and corrected entry. Complainant was suffering from, and had been suffering for several days prior, symptoms directly related to the illnesses for which complainant is disabled, and is still suffering an outbreak of symptoms. This prevented the complainant's participation.

Complainant begs the Attorney Examiner's and the Commission's understanding in this matter, and for the reasons of medical related issues, requests the procedural teleconference be rescheduled. Complainant would also like to note, some of these issues are directly related to his previously issued Title II request for Accommodations that was and are necessary for his fair and reasonable access to the proceedings and procedures of the PUCO that those not suffering from his disability can more readily and freely access and participate in.

Sincerely,

Mark A. Fares
