Commissioner Thomas Johnson

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic power plants.

Please reject FirstEnergy's proposal so that a powerful utility can no longer block competition and progress for the sake of its own profits.

Doing so would send a clear message to businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents that Ohio is ready for a new era--one in which maintaining the status quo is placed ahead of Ohioans' best interest and electricity is clean, reliable, and affordable.

Please reject FirstEnergy's request. It's what's right for Ohio's customers and clean energy future.

Thank you,

Commissioner Thomas Johnson

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic power plants.

Please reject FirstEnergy's proposal so that a powerful utility can no longer block competition and progress for the sake of its own profits.

Doing so would send a clear message to businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents that Ohio is ready for a new era--one in which maintaining the status quo is placed ahead of Ohioans' best interest and electricity is clean, reliable, and affordable.

Please reject FirstEnergy's request. It's what's right for Ohio's customers and clean energy future.

Thank you,

I have read both sides of this discussion. The response that Ohioans deserve will relieve them of paying billions in bailout to FirstEnergy.

Commissioner Thomas Johnson

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic power plants.

Please reject FirstEnergy's proposal so that a powerful utility can no longer block competition and progress for the sake of its own profits.

Doing so would send a clear message to businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents that Ohio is ready for a new era--one in which maintaining the status quo is placed ahead of Ohioans' best interest and electricity is clean, reliable, and affordable.

Please reject FirstEnergy's request. It's what's right for Ohio's customers and clean energy future.

Thank you,

Commissioner Thomas Johnson

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic power plants.

Please reject FirstEnergy's proposal so that a powerful utility can no longer block competition and progress for the sake of its own profits.

Doing so would send a clear message to businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents that Ohio is ready for a new era--one in which maintaining the status quo is placed ahead of Ohioans' best interest and electricity is clean, reliable, and affordable.

Please reject FirstEnergy's request. It's what's right for Ohio's customers and clean energy future.

Thank you,

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic power plants. It is time to stop allowing greedy fossil fools to scam customers.

Please reject FirstEnergy's proposal so that a powerful utility can no longer block competition and progress for the sake of its own profits.

Doing so would send a clear message to businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents that Ohio is ready for a new era--one in which maintaining the status quo is no longer placed ahead of Ohioans' best interest and electricity is clean, reliable, and affordable. The technology exists to create that clean energy future. There is no longer a need for the filthy, toxic legacy of fossil fuels in America.

In fact, they should be paying to clean up the messes they have made.

Please reject FirstEnergy's request to scam us. It's what's right for Ohio's customers and our nation's clean energy future.

Commissioner Thomas Johnson

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic power plants.

Please reject FirstEnergy's proposal so that a powerful utility can no longer block competition and progress for the sake of its own profits.

Doing so would send a clear message to businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents that Ohio is ready for a new era--one in which maintaining the status quo is placed ahead of Ohioans' best interest and electricity is clean, reliable, and affordable.

Please reject FirstEnergy's request. It's what's right for Ohio's customers and clean energy future.

Thank you,

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic power plants. It is my understanding of "free market principles" that financial loss because of poor decisions should be born by the entity making the poor decision, not their customers!

Please reject FirstEnergy's proposal so that a powerful utility can no longer block competition and progress for the sake of its own profits.

Please reject FirstEnergy's proposal so that a powerful utility can no longer block competition and progress for the sake of its own profits.

Doing so would send a clear message to businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents that Ohio is ready for a new era--one in which maintaining the status quo is placed ahead of Ohioans' best interest and electricity is clean, reliable, and affordable.

Please reject FirstEnergy's request. It's what's right for Ohio's customers and clean energy future.

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic power plants.

Please reject FirstEnergy's proposal so that a powerful utility can no longer block competition and progress for the sake of its own profits.

Doing so would send a clear message to businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents that Ohio is ready for a new era--one in which maintaining the status quo is placed ahead of Ohioans' best interest and electricity is clean, reliable, and affordable.

Please reject FirstEnergy's request. It's what's right for Ohio's customers and clean energy future.

Commissioner Thomas Johnson

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic power plants.

Please reject FirstEnergy's proposal so that a powerful utility can no longer block competition and progress for the sake of its own profits.

Doing so would send a clear message to businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents that Ohio is ready for a new era--one in which maintaining the status quo is not placed ahead of Ohioans' best interest and electricity is clean, reliable, and affordable.

Please reject FirstEnergy's request. It's what's right for Ohio's customers and clean energy future.

Thank you,

Ms. Jackson Jackson

My electricity and natural gas come to me from Duke Energy. I do not want them to use this request for a rate hike to pick my pocket for their bad business decisions.

Please reject FirstEnergy's request. It's what's right for Ohio's customers and clean energy future.

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic power plants.

Please reject FirstEnergy's proposal so that a powerful utility can no longer block competition and progress for the sake of its own profits.

Doing so would send a clear message to businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents that Ohio is ready for a new era--one in which maintaining the status quo is placed ahead of Ohioans' best interest and electricity is clean, reliable, and affordable.

Please reject FirstEnergy's request. It's what's right for Ohio's customers and clean energy future.

It's hard to understand how any company can think that the taxpayers should be liable for their debt. When they are sailing along under a blue sky they have no problem either pocketing their profits or dishing them out in dividends for shareholders or even as a bonus for top execs. I don't think I've ever heard of any of them offering to share the wealth with the public, A.K.A. taxpayers. Talk about a bonafide sense of entitlement! This puts me in mind of the buffoon the GOP has nominated for president this year. The business model appears to be accumulate massive debt and skip out on it because you've paid enough!

Or just let someone else pay it if you can swing it.

Please reject FirstEnergy's request. It's what's right for Ohio's customers and clean energy future.

Personally I find that you would even be considering this is a slap in the face to all other companies that serve the public in general. Why would they be in such bad shape financially if they are paying bonus's and stock dividends? It seems to me that customers mean nothing except for a way to pay for their dividends and bonus's. Should not that be an equal exchange, value for both and not just the one.

Plus with the environmental actions being taken over the last five decades almost now, you mean to tell me that they did not plan for it.

So, we have to now pay for their mistakes. Are you kidding me? Sounds like a governmental bail-out is what they will be asking for next and we will pay for that, too.

I would be asking, "How could you have made such a mess of this with all the warnings to the contrary for almost have a century?"

Oh yeah, I know this answer, they were too busy buying off legislators and commissioners like you to plan ahead and now ... we will have to pay and you will get more money to see it through. Does all government and industry hate the people that make them and the government viable?

Or is it just for the love of money, which has no real worth, but what we say it is worth. It is just sad that neither of you can actually serve the masses that make it all possible.

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

As a First Energy customer, I'll be damned if I'm going to pay for their poor business decisions. Clean energy has been on the horizon since the 70's, but they were too slow to get with the times AND NOW THEY WANT US TO BAIL OUT THEIR POOR DECISIONS.!

Dear Commissioner Johnson,

I'm glad that First Energy is closing down its polluting plants---- seems like a good thing--- the RIGHT THING--- for our health and our environment.

BUT doing this and expecting its customers to bail out its uneconomic power plants is a ridiculous request. Expecting the customer to pay for the company's business mistakes is nothing less than criminal!

Please reject FirstEnergy's proposal so that a powerful utility can no longer block competition and progress for the sake of its own profits.

I'm writing today to ask you to say no to FirstEnergy's request for the PUCO to authorize substantial, customer-funded subsidies to bail out its uneconomic power plants.

Please reject FirstEnergy's proposal so that a powerful utility can no longer block competition and progress for the sake of its own profits.

Doing so would send a clear message to businesses, entrepreneurs, investors, and residents that Ohio is ready for a new era--one in which maintaining the status quo is placed ahead of Ohioans' best interest and electricity is clean, reliable, and affordable.

Please reject FirstEnergy's request. It's what's right for Ohio's customers and clean energy future.

Subject: Reject the Proposed FirstEnergy Settlement (Case No. 14-1297-EL-SSO)

After more than a year of hearings, thousands of citizens and businesses calling for its rejection, and expert testimony, FirstEnergy has failed to explain why using ratepayer dollars to prop up their aging, inefficient, dirty power plants makes any sense.

The proposed settlement that is pending before you does nothing to mitigate the environmental and public health impacts these coal plants will have in Ohio and beyond. The proposed settlement flies in the face of Ohio policy that honors customer choice. And just as egregious is asking Ohioans - the very same people who will suffer from air pollution and will have diminished energy choice under this proposed deal - to pick up the tab of over $10 a month per household. By comparison, the cost of clean, renewable power that customers pay now is only about $1 per month!

It is past time for FirstEnergy to adapt to a competitive market that is becoming more and more favorable to cleaner resources; the PUCO should encourage them to innovate and invest in the energy resources of the future instead of doubling down on the energy resources of the past.

Please stand with Ohio families and small businesses and reject this proposed settlement.

Thank you for your time in considering this request.
