Documentation attesting to the applicant's technical and managerial expertise relative to the proposed service offering(s) and proposed service area

Applicant's owner, officer, sole shareholder's CV is attached.* ... Because the Company resells services, the equipment and facilities used to deliver services are owned and operated by well-established carriers so that the Company is not involved and is prohibited from being involved in any technical operations used to provide its resold services. As a resale carrier, the focus and emphasis is on strong managerial skills in marketing, competitive services and pricing, cost flow management, regulatory compliance, accounting and related business disciplines. The expertise applied to operating in the statewide service area encompasses knowledge and understanding of population demographics, competitive service offerings and pricing.
