MOTION TO INTERVENE OF THE KROGER CO.

Pursuant to Section 4903.221, Revised Code, and Rule 4901-1-11, Ohio Adm. Code, The Kroger Co. (Kroger) respectfully moves the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio (Commission) for leave to intervene in the above-captioned matters with the full powers and rights granted to intervening parties. As demonstrated in the attached Memorandum in Support, Kroger has a real and substantial interest in these proceedings which may be adversely affected by the outcome herein, and which cannot be adequately represented by any other existing parties. Accordingly, Kroger satisfies the standard for intervention set forth in Ohio statutes and regulations.

Therefore, Kroger respectfully requests that the Commission grant this motion to intervene and that Kroger be made a full party of record in these proceedings.

Respectfully submitted,

On March 31, 2017, Duke Energy Ohio, Inc. (Duke) filed an application seeking approval to modify its Price Stabilization Rider (Rider PSR).<sup>1</sup> Duke requested approval to populate Rider PSR to collect the net costs associated with its contractual entitlement in generating assets owned by the Ohio Valley Electric Corporation (OVEC). Duke also requested Commission authorization to modify the term of Rider PSR. As explained in more detail below, Kroger has a real and substantial interest in the outcome of these proceedings.

Section 4903.221, Revised Code, and Rule 4901-1-11, Ohio Administrative Code, establish the standard for intervention in the above-captioned proceedings. Section 4903.221, Revised Code, provides, in part, that any person “who may be adversely affected” by a Commission proceeding is entitled to seek intervention in that proceeding. Section 4903.221(B), Revised Code, further requires the Commission to consider the nature and extent of the prospective intervenor’s interest, the legal position advanced by the prospective intervenor and its probable relation to the merits of the case, whether the intervention by the prospective intervenor will unduly prolong or delay the proceeding, and the prospective intervenor's potential contribution to a just and expeditious resolution of the issues involved.

Rule 4901-1-11, Ohio Adm. Code, permits intervention by a party who demonstrates a real and substantial interest in the proceeding and who is so situated that the disposition of the proceeding may impair or impede its ability to protect that interest and whose interest is not adequately represented by an existing party.

Kroger is one of the largest grocers in the United States, with numerous facilities served by Duke. The facilities operated by Kroger use electricity for food storage, lighting, cooling, and distribution, often 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Kroger's electric and energy needs associated with its facilities in Duke's service territory are considerable, and its electric service and the costs associated with obtaining such service from Duke will be impacted by the outcome of these proceedings.

Therefore, Kroger has a direct, real, and substantial interest in the issues raised in these proceedings and is so situated that the disposition of these proceedings may, as a practical matter, impair or impede its ability to protect that interest. Kroger is regularly and actively involved in Commission proceedings,<sup>2</sup> and as in previous proceedings, Kroger's unique knowledge and perspective will contribute to the full development and equitable resolution of the factual issues in these proceedings, and Kroger's interest will not be adequately represented by other parties to these proceedings. Finally, this timely intervention will not unduly delay or prolong these proceedings.

Kroger satisfies the criteria set forth in Section 4903.221, Revised Code, and Rule 4901-1-11, Ohio Adm. Code, and is, therefore, authorized to intervene with the full powers and rights granted by the Commission to intervening parties.

Accordingly, Kroger respectfully requests that the Commission grant this motion for leave to intervene and that Kroger be made a full party of record.

Respectfully submitted,
