MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO INTERVENE

Ohio Partners for Affordable Energy (“OPAE”) should be permitted to intervene in these matters pursuant to Section 4903.22.1, Ohio Revised Code, and the Commission’s Code of Rules and Regulation contained in Rule 4901-01-11 of the Ohio Administrative Code. The above-referenced dockets concern the Commission’s audits of certain cost-recovery riders of Vectren Energy Delivery of Ohio, Inc. (“Vectren”).

In determining whether to permit intervention, the following criteria are to be considered: the nature of the person’s interest; the extent to which that interest is represented by existing parties; the person’s potential contribution to a just and expeditious resolution of the proceeding; and, whether granting the intervention will unduly delay or unjustly prejudice any existing party. OPAE meets all four criteria for intervention in these matters.

OPAE is an Ohio nonprofit corporation with a stated purpose of advocating for affordable energy policies for low and moderate income Ohioans; as such, OPAE has a real and substantial interest in these matters. Additionally, OPAE includes as members non-profit organizations located in the service area that will be affected by the matters.¹ Moreover, many of OPAA's members are Community Action Agencies. Under the federal legislation authorizing the creation and funding of these agencies, originally known as the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964, Community Action is charged with advocating for low-income residents of their communities.

OPAA also provides essential services in the form of bill payment assistance programs and weatherization and energy efficiency services to low-income customers of Vectren. OPAA members are also ratepayers of Vectren. Therefore, OPAA has an interest in these proceedings that will audit the above-named cost-recovery riders of Vectren. OPAA's primary interest in these cases is to protect the interests of low and moderate income customers and OPAA members whose rates and provision of service may be affected by these audits.

For the above reasons, OPAA has a direct, real and substantial interest in these matters. The disposition of these matters may impair or impede the ability of OPAA to protect its interests. No other party to the matters will adequately represent the interests of OPAA. OPAA is a rare organization that serves as an advocate, service provider and nonprofit customer group. No other party represents this group of interests. OPAA's participation in these matters will not cause undue delay, will not unjustly prejudice any existing party, and will contribute to the just and expeditious resolution of the issues raised by these cases. Further, OPAA has been recognized by the Commission in the past as an advocate for consumers and particularly low-income consumers, all of whom may be affected by the outcome of these audits.

Therefore, OPAA is entitled to intervene in these matters with the full powers and rights granted by statute and by the provisions of the Commission's Code of Rules and Regulations to intervening parties.
