Get well wishes to Jim Reynolds who had a hospital visit. Richard Bear Jones needs prayers also. Greg Roseberry had surgery. Danny Neal from Oak Hill had very serious surgery. Chick Chambers had serious surgery. Remember all in your prayers.

I am happy to report that Judy Romano, down to the post office, came thru her surgery with flying colors. Her doctor was really impressed. She was able to go home the next afternoon. She had half her kidney removed due to cancer.

Keep classmate Emelie Dixon Paul's grand-daughter Jossy, in your prayers. She has Lyme's Disease. Keep her brother Bruce in your prayers also.

Keep Jean Warrington in your prayers. I have known her since she was a baby. Her mom, Mickey, TRIED to teach me to crochet, but it didn't work! Mickey has been my friend for 52 years.

Get well wishes to my childhood friend, Mary Dale Auxier Montgomery, who gave everyone quite a scare when she was life flighted to James. She sent me a message that she has meningitis and is being given lots of antibiotics. Keep her in your prayers.

Get well wishes to Susan Kellogg who will have gall bladder surgery on July 5th. Pray that she stays well enough to get it done. She has tried for a year!

I was sooo happy to have Bloomfield kid Tommy Clary come for a visit. We had a good time talking about Viet Nam and Bloomfield days. He was laughing about meeting a marine on the street and after they passed, they both turned and said, "Tommy?" It was Tom Michael and they were so happy to see each other.

Did you hear the REDS announcer wish Ruth McKinney a happy 89th birthday and call Jackson the speeding ticket capital of Ohio???

If you get a call that rings once, don't call the number back. It is an international call and for every minute you hold on, you get charged a big bill. I am so sick of "local" calls that are scammers telling me I won a vacation. I answer thinking because it is a Jackson number that it is a customer, and this cheerful voice tells me I won another cruise.

I read in the paper that there will be more bear sightings this year, and read on Facebook a couple days later that Gallia County already has sightings!

Speaking of Gallia County, an Amish family from Gallia County, bought a farm in Oak Hill. He said the Amish are moving to Jackson County because they don't like the laws in Gallia County! He has nine children and one is married, and he said their new home would be built and ready to move into in three weeks!

Nurse Practitioner, Sherry Russell, is moving her practice to Gallia County and Vicki Holzapfel will have a Clinic in Sherry's old location, that will open in early July. Vicki has lots of years of experience.

Has anyone heard of anything going in the Rue 21 building? I sure hated to see them go out of business!

And, in other good news, Cracker Barrel is going to be coming to Portsmouth SOON! I love that place!

Congrats to Brandi Cornett and Stephen Mullins on their engagement!

Great grand-daughter Sadie Lee Wyant, celebrated her 8th birthday at her grandparents April and Jerry Riley in Chillicothe last Saturday. Like me, she is all legs and feet!

Thoughts to ponder—Worrying won't stop the bad stuff from happening. It just stops you from enjoying the good.

Definition of a friend—Someone who says nice things about you when you're not around.

Charlie Brown says that he is afraid to be happy because whenever he gets too happy, something bad always happens!

Tabitha Linton, Niki Barry, classmate Georgie Durst Rohr,

Mary Nutt, Kenny Dearing, Debbie McKinniss, and Shirley Anderson, and happy 13th anniversary to Bob and Debbie Suckles and happy 2nd to Scott and Terry Keaton; on the 18th is Stacey Smith, LaDean Orender, Patty Hudson, Dee Browning, Ron Carter, Hope Keller, classmate Bill Morgan, Jeff Altheer, Corty Queen, Coby Harris (10), Jenny Farley, Florelie Souders, Melody Morgan, and Jenny Sizemore, and happy anniversary to Dan and Karla Morrow and to David and Kim Phillips; on the 19th is James Street (21), Sarah Weber, Brook Perry, Marvin Ross, Jerry Shook, Marsha Perry, Walter Lührman, Al Mapes, and Rose Ragland; on the 20th is Linda Smith, Jarrod Morris, Melissa Mercer, Phil Fain, Sidney Baisden (19), Darlene Fisher, Richard Bright, Isaac Hanks, and Jeff Ridge-way; on the 21st is Dolly Cardiff, Dava Davis, Ed Cade, Katherine Carroll (13) Donna Greene, Christine Deaterla, and John Robbins, and happy anniversary to Eric and Elisa Engressor; on the 22nd is classmate Tom Jenkins, brother Jake Perry, J.D. Hey Myr! Did you see Judy Comer from Oak Hill on Cash Explosion on Saturday night? She won $12,100.

I was saddened to learn of the death of Ann Barnett, who was well known to a lot of us. I was also saddened to learn of the death of former Franklin County Judge Dick Sheward who passed away at 73. He was born and raised in Jackson County.

Sand hill cranes... feathered royalty

By Robert Maynard
Telegram Columnist

Did you know that the world only has 15 species of cranes? North America is home to only 2 of them, the sand hill crane, and the whooping crane. Last year we were fortunate enough to watch a pair of sand hill cranes raise their 2 little ones in the lake behind our home. We noticed the nest early enough to watch through binoculars as the little ones grew and eventually left the nest. Always an exciting thing to watch.

I remember well the first time I saw a sand hill crane down here. We were at a race track (gas station) getting some frozen yogurt, and these remarkably tall birds came walking around the corner of the station into the side yard. They were feeding as if they were in the middle of nowhere. These birds are as tame as any wild birds could be, but they have their limits. About 10 feet is the closest they will allow you before they skimmer away. They only fly in extreme get-away cases. I can't imagine the energy these birds use to fly. They are at least four feet tall and I guess their wing span is 4-6 feet.

The first time you see them in the air it is very impressive. Six is the most I have seen in one flock. My wife was sitting out back and four of them came flying over the pool and landed in the strip of grass right behind our house and the lake. They were vociferous that day, and my wife recorded them on her phone. The call they make reminds me of the raptors on Jurassic Park.

The sand hill cranes possess an elegance that is almost cocky; the way they strut around so close to you but never too close. Their tall grey bodies, capped off with a crimson head, just seem like royalty. It is almost like they are wondering when we humans are gonna leave so they can get back to living their lives undisturbed.

They mate for life starting between the ages of 2-7 years. They stay together year-round and have been known to mate for several decades.

I haven't seen the first hummingbird down here. I guess I was spoiled in Jackson where I literally had them eating out of my hand. Oh well, I suppose after 22 years of hummingbirds, I can observe the sand hill cranes and scads of other birds I have yet to identify.

God bless you all - RHM
