DOCKETING CASE #:17-1948-TP-UNC

SUBJECT: AT&T Ohio - Assistance Programs

Please docket the attached in the case number above.

I am requesting the PUCO deny AT&T's application to abandon the Lifeline Services to anyone. Through the years AT&T has received beneficial legislation by promising these services to the elderly and disadvantaged. This is a vital service to many customers and it would be a great disservice to these customers, to employees, to Ohio, and to the PUCO to allow this to happen. This is a corporation who has received Billions of dollars in a recent GOP Tax Plan and is an attempt to further AT&T's corporate greed. I urge you again to Deny this request. Thank you.

SUBJECT: AT&T Ohio - Assistance Programs

AT&T has received many beneficial Legislative decisions, including billions in tax credits, over the years by offering promises of service commitments and lifeline help to the POOR, many areas don't have good cell phone service, and the Elderly, many elderly depend on lifeline. Now they just want to walk away from those commitments!

10,482 Ohio ATT customers will be affected by no longer providing Lifeline discounts!
SHAME ON YOU! You are a Fortune 10 company, 9 to be exact, start acting like it and take care of your customers and your workers.

Please docket the customers complaint in the case number above.
