

LARGE FILING SEPARATOR SHEET

CASE NUMBER: 17-1948-TP-WNC

FILE DATE: 08/30/18

SECTION: PART 6 OF 7

FILED BY: T. DIXON

FILED ON BEHALF OF: PROGRESS OHIO

NUMBER OF PAGES: 150

DESCRIPTION OF DOCUMENT: PUBLIC COMMENTS

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jim, FL

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Quida, FL

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Harry and Kathy, FL

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Cheryl, FL

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Marlene, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Greg, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Susan, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jim, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Ron, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Pat, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Fran, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

John, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Deanna, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Donna, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Lynn, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Anne, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Michael, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Cindy, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Kathy, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

S, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Susan, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Amanda, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Erika, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Darice, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Pamela, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Francis, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Celina, Franklin

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jeffery, Fulton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

SALLY, GA

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Greg, Gallia

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Douglas, Geauga

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Fred, Geauga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Susan, Geauga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jamie, Greene

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

James, Greene

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

William, Greene

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Shannon, Greene

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

McGregor, Greene

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

J, Greene

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Bonnie, Greene

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Maria, Greene

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Beverly, Greene

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Nancy, Greene

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Kit, Greene

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jeri, Greene

"AT&T's profits are skyrocketing after making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut. Now they want to withdraw from the Lifeline program?

When I was a young, single mother, I was a participant in the Lifeline program, so I know how much it can mean. It enabled me to be safe and to start a business from my home. AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, survivors of domestic violence, and our veterans.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

Lindie Keaton

"

Lindie, Greene

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Lisa, Greene

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

V, Greene

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Craig, Greene

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Michael, Guernsey

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Ann, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Becky, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Lauri, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Lynette, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

William, Hamilton

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

DrWill, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Anne, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Deborah, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Saad, Hamilton

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

John, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Reed, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Bernard, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Uyen, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Beth, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Joseph, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Steve, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Carren, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Donald, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Tom, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Patricia, Hamilton

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Karolyn, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Lee, Hamilton

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Tiffany, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Nancy, Hamilton

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Cynthia, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

John, Hamilton

“It is shameful that AT&T is trying to leave the Lifeline program that helps 10,000 Ohioans in need.
SHAME ON YOU, AT&T!

Don't let them get away with it, PUCO!

Sincerely,

Stuart Zanger

Cincinnati

”

Stuart, Hamilton

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Tom, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Anne, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Heather, Hamilton

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Brenda, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Alain, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Panapakkam, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Stephen, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Erin, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Kat, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Peirce, Hamilton

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Louisa, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Gary, Hamilton

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Pamela, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Audrey, Hamilton

1.
“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Daniel, Hamilton

1.

"HOW CAN PEOPLE WHO RUN THESE HUGE CORPORATIONS NOT SEE THE EFFECTS OF THEIR RELENTLESS GREED? DON'T THEY HAVE ANY IDEA THAT $20 OR $50 DOLLARS/MONTH CAN BE THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN JUST GETTING BY AND TRAGEDY FOR LOW INCOME ELDERLY?! BUT YOU DON'T EVEN KNOW THESE PEOPLE... YOU ARE SEPARATED FROM THEM GEOGO- GRAPHICALLY, ECONOMICALLY AND SOCIALLY. YOU HAVE NO CONNECTION OF OF COMPASSION TO SUCH HUMAN BEINGS AND YOU ARE SAD AND PITIFUL IN YOUR SOULS!

After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Nonie, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Melvyn, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Angela, Hamilton

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Mark, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jim, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Joseph, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Carol, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Dania, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T wasn't happy apparently from the gigantic gift from the citizens of Ohio. So they have to reach their slimy hands into the pockets of the poorest Ohioans.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Peter, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Susan, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Rick, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Paulette, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

These greedy, massive telecoms have been allowed to profit from their near-monopoly status with little regard for customer service - the least they could do is offer these services to Ohio's most vulnerable.

Sincerely,

Adam Bangert

"

Adam, Hamilton

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Carol, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Laura, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Thomas, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

Melissa English, Cincinnati

"

Melissa, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Doug, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Danielle, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

James, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Lawrence, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Eric, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Reginald, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Ann, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Matt, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Dustin, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Lucille, Hamilton

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

William, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Herbert, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Gertrude, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Sylvia, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Cynthia, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Raymond, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Sarah, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Bruce, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Carol, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Kelly, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Janet, Cuyahoga

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Vincent, Cuyahoga

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Lori, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

David, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Stefanie, Cuyahoga

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Tanya, Cuyahoga

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Margaret, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Adam, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Wynter, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

William, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

Cindy Illig-Lum

”

Cindy, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Noa, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Laura, Cuyahoga

1.
"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

John, Cuyahoga

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Deborah, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Mary, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Patricia, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Medhat, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Deborah, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Tomas, Cuyahoga