Re: Dahl v. Dominion Energy Ohio, Case No. 17-1822-GA-CSS

Dear Ms. McNeal:

On October 4, 2018, Ms. Erin Dahl filed a motion for continuance of the hearing in this proceeding previously scheduled for October 11. The East Ohio Gas Company d/b/a Dominion Energy Ohio (DEO) does not oppose this motion and will work with the attorney examiner to determine a date suitable for all parties.

DEO would address one claim made by Ms. Dahl in her motion. Ms. Dahl states that “the gas company has records of documents that I need for the PUCO hearing, yet each time that I have requested the copies from Dominion for the time-frames in question, they have not provided them to me.” (Mot. at 3.) This is the first time DEO has been made aware of this claim, and according to DEO’s records, Ms. Dahl has requested documents from DEO just once, on October 4, the same day she filed her motion. This documentation, an account statement for the dates January 1, 2016, through January 31, 2017, has been mailed to the address provided by Ms. Dahl. If Ms. Dahl needs additional documentation, she is welcome to contact counsel for DEO to arrange receipt.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Andrew J. Campbell
*Counsel for The East Ohio Gas Company d/b/a
