Re: Seneca Wind, LLC
Case No. 18-0488-EL-BGN

Dear Ms. McNeal:

On July 16, 2018, and as amended on July 20, 2018, Seneca Wind, LLC ("Seneca Wind") filed its application for a Certificate of Environmental Compatibility and Public Need (the "Application") for a wind-powered generating facility in Seneca County, Ohio. Following the filing of its Application, on September 14, 2018, Seneca Wind filed supplemental information regarding changes and updates to its Application (the "Supplement to Application").

Seneca Wind submits this errata letter to make the following corrections to the Supplement to Application:

1. All references to Parcel C13000131600000 should indicate that it is a non-participating property. In most instances, the proper status of this parcel is referenced; however, on page 4 of the Supplement to Application, the second bullet point refers to a "change in status for a portion of Property C13000131600000." This is a typo, as all other references to this change correctly state, this entire property is non-participating.

2. The Supplement to Application, on page 4, makes a correction indicating that a reference to a residence should be modified to refer to a barn. However, the Supplement to Application references the incorrect parcel. The barn that was mistaken for a house is located on Parcel C13000144840300, but was mislabeled in the Supplement to Application as Parcel C13000131600000.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Dylan F. Borchers
