

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF OHIO

In the Matter of the Renewal Application of)
Village of Lisbon as a Governmental) Case No. 15-0285-EL-GAG Aggregator of Electricity)

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF THE GOVERNMENTAL AGGREGATION CERTIFICATE

Village of Lisbon respectfully requests that the Commission extend Village of Lisbon's governmental aggregation certificate, 15-941E(2), pursuant to O.A.C. § 4901:1-24-09.

Village of Lisbon is a governmental aggregator certified by the Commission since March 8, 2015, to provide governmental aggregation services. Village of Lisbon's current certificate expires on March 8, 2019. Pursuant to O.A.C. 4901:1-24-09, Village of Lisbon seeks an extension of the current certificate pending the Commission's renewal of the certificate.

An extension of time is warranted in this case. This motion for extension is not made for purposes of delay and will not prejudice any parties in interest. Instead, the applicant seeks to fully comply with all of the Commission rules and certification requirements. Village of Lisbon's renewal application is being filed today, February 8, 2019, 28 days before its current certificate expires. Wherefore, Village of Lisbon respectfully requests that the Commission extend the previous certificate, 15-941E(2), until such time that the Commission can review and approve the renewal application in case number 15-0285-EL-GAG.

Dated: February 8, 2019

Respectfully submitted,
