

BEFORE THE OHIO POWER SITING BOARD

In the Matter of the Application of) South Field Energy LLC for a First)
Amendment to the Certificate of)	Case No. 19-0638-EL-BGA
Environmental Compatibility and Public) Public Need Issued in) Case No. 15-1716-EL-BGN)

PROOF OF PUBLICATION

Pursuant to R.C. 4906.06(C) and R.C. 4906.06(E), the attached public notice was published on March 22, 2019 in the Morning Journal, a newspaper in general circulation in Columbiana County, as shown in the attached affidavit of publication.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ MacDonald W. Taylor
Michael J. Settineri (0073369), Counsel of Record
MacDonald W. Taylor (0086959)
VORYS, SATER, SEYMOUR AND PEASE LLP
52 East Gay Street
P.O. Box 1008
Columbus, Ohio 43216-1008
(614) 464-5462
(614) 719-5146 (fax)
mjsettineri@vorys.com
mwtaylor@vorys.com

Attorneys for South Field Energy LLC

POLICE

County Sheriff

— Deputies were asked to check at a U.S. Route 30, Hanover Township, home at 9:55 a.m. Wednesday after there were concerns about Randy Faith being at the home the last couple days. Dennis Dexter said there were no problems and Faith was not at the home on Wednesday.

Lisbon

— Anthony Delmont, Harrison Street, called at 10:3 p.m. Monday because Nicole Hilton would not leave after being told to. Police arrived and spoke to Hilton, who agreed to leave.

— A caller who lives in the 300 block of East Washington Street reported leaving for work about 5 a.m. Wednesday when a noticed man wearing a black hooded-sweatshirt that was pulled up over his head walking up to his car. The man turned around after seeing the caller. Police searched the area but did not find the person.

— Police were asked to stand by while a patient at the county Counseling Center was transported to a local hospital at 2:45 p.m. March 15. The male patient has caused problems in the past, which worried the doctor.

— Murdo D. Urquhart, 41, Roseland Commons apartments, was arrested for shoplifting at the Dollar General on Tuesday. The following items were found on Urquhart: Sure brand deodorant, Colgate toothpaste, and a pack of double-edged stainless steel shaving blades. He did produce a receipt showing he paid for a bottle of Coca Cola he was drinking.

— Police were called to a domestic disturbance on East Washington Street at 8:34 p.m. Wednesday, where a man said his girlfriend had been drinking and was having one of her violent episodes. The man repeatedly declined to press charges because of her children.. The woman admitted striking the man, but she wanted him to leave, which he had already made plans to do.

— Laura Okel was standing in line at the Valley View with her wallet open in her hand at 1:10 p.m. Wednesday. Okel said she turned away and when she looked back two $20 bills were missing from her wallet. Okel then noticed the two men in line ahead of her spent each had a $20 bill the used to pay for their purchases.

East Palestine

— A woman, name and address not listed, reported at 1:04 p.m. Thursday unauthorized charges were made on her banking account. An investigation is pending.

— Cato Griffith Wolf, West Main Street, reported at 9:25 a.m. Thursday someone he knows damaged his vehicle. An investigation is pending.

— Police spoke with a high school employee at 1:13 p.m. Tuesday in reference to a threat a student had made. The matter remains under investigation.

— Paul Ray Champney, Brookdale Avenue, reported at 10:18 a.m. Wednesday he was receiving harassing text messages from someone he knows.

— Police responded to a North Market Street home at 3:26 p.m. Wednesday for a report that a boy was wanting to harm himself. Police spoke with the boy and found that he was angry and made threats but did not actually want to harm himself.

— Police responded to a West Taggart Street home at 4:01 p.m. Wednesday and a report of a disturbance. Police found that a woman at the home had a man bothering her and she wanted him to leave her alone.

— Police were called to an Alice Street home at 4:08 p.m. Wednesday for a report that a man intentionally caused harm to himself. EMS also responded.

East Liverpool

— Nellie E. Bissell, of West Sixth Street, was cited at 10:29 p.m. March 15 for failure to control and leaving the scene, after allegedly striking a car while turning left onto Gardendale Street from St. Clair Avenue.

— Dennis Curtis Pollock, of Youngstown, was cited at 11:23 a.m. March 4 for failure to maintain an assured clear distance in the area of U.S. Route 30 and state Route 7.

— Karl R. Crabtree, of St. Clairsville was cited at 5:01 a.m March 4 in the area of Golding and Drury with failure to control, after allegedly striking a wall when his vehicle went off the side of the road near t he Newell Bridge.

— Adam E. Johnson, Grant Street, was cited at 7:03 p.m. March 13 in the area of state Route 39 for failure to control, after his vehicle allegedly went off the side of the road and hit a concrete barrier.

— Jody Eccles, of Etruria Street, was cited at 9:11 p.m. March 17 in the 1500 block of Pennsylvania Avenue after allegedly striking a utility pole.

— Ethan A. George, of Ohio Avenue, was cited at 9:09 p.m. March 17 in the 1500 block of Pennsylvania Avenue for failure to maintain an assured clear distance, after allegedly rearending another vehicle.

— Roy B. Wells, of Toronto was cited at 4:55 p.m. March 2 for failure to maintain an assured clear distance, after allegedly rearending another vehicle near the state Route 11 ramp.

— Police are investigating two hit-and-run crashes that occurred after noon March 14: one at 12:10 p.m. near North and Oak streets and the other at 2:47 p.m. at Fifth and Walnut, where a vehicle was sideswiped.

Wellsville

— Elizabeth Lancaster was cited for reckless operation for striking two parked vehicles on Broadway at 5 a.m. March 7. Lancaster was found passed out behind the wheel and was transported by ambulance to a local hospital.

— Police were called to a domestic disturbance at Independence Square at 5 a.m. March 14, where they spoke with Kaiya Edge, who said is was nothing more than an argument. Police noticed a broken chair on the ground and the back screen door closing as they made their way through the apartment. Edge said the man she had been dating, Robert Martin, was hollering and threatening her before running out the screen door when police arrived.

— Sherri Adams, Broadway, reported March 15 someone used her identity to obtain a loan in her name.

— Lonnie Adkins was stopped by East Liverpool police in January for a traffic violation and realized he did not have his insurance information with him and was cited. Adkins said he makes quarterly payments for his insurance, and he went to Brush Insurance get a copy of his paperwork only to to find out the office was vacant and no longer in business.

— Donny Franklin reported his ex-wife, Rashed Delong, has a protection order against him. On March 1, Franklin stopped by Nick’s Pizza to grab a couple of slices, and when he came outside he saw Delong outside the VFW taking a video of him with her phone.

— Police responded to a loud noise complaint at Shoub Towers at 10 a.m. March 2, with Amy Muschweck and Jerry Highley saying they had been aruing. Highley agreed to leave for the rest of the day and asked for keys to the car they both own. Muschweck said she needed the keys to drive to the hospital because when Highley closed a bedroom door on her she fell on the bed, hurting her back. Muschweck then took the keys and left for the hospital, with police saying she appeared to be walking fine while carrying a large tote bag. Police received other information that she hurt her back the day before while lifting tote containers around for a yard sale.

— Zana Keefer, Main Street, called police on March 2 to report her boyfriend had her credit card, and she was in the process of canceling her card when officers arrived.

— Police were called to a village home on March 4 after a mother reported her 16-year-old autistic son chocked her because he did not want to take his medicine, but she did not want to press charges. The police found the boy curled up in a fetal position crying, but the officers were able to convince him to take his medicine. He also agreed to be transported to a local hospital to be examined.

— Bruce Smith, Lisbon Street, reported March 9 a package he ordered from Boost Mobile was missing after being delivered by Federal Express. Records indicated a woman he knows signed for the package, but Smith said she denied having the package when he called her.

— Regina Carlisle, 18th Street, reported March 12 her ex-boyfriend smashed the front windshield of her car with a plastic snow shovel during an argument. Charges were expected to be filed for criminal damaging.

— Police were called March 9 to remove someone from the Eagles, where they found a bloody Richard J. Fry, who said he had slipped and struck his head on the floor. Sean Ramsey told police he and his family arrived at the Eagles and he reached out to shake Fry’s hand but he attacked him instead. A fight ensued, with other patrons jumping in to break up the fight. An ambulance was called to transport Fry to a local hospital, and two minutes later police received a report that Fry had jumped out of the ambulance near McDonald’s. Police found Fry in the parking lot of the Paddle Wheel restaurant, and the ambulance was able to take him the rest of the way to the hospital. Police later viewed surveillance video, and determined Fry started the fight and was seen trying to attack other patrons and chasing Ramsey with a pool stick. The video also showed Fry cut his head after Ramsey wrestled him to the floor and tried to hold him down. Fry was charged with assault and disorderly conduct.

— Police made a traffic stop on Lisbon Street at 9:58 p.m. March 15 after the officer noticed the pickup truck did not have any license plate lights. The passenger identified herself as Catilyn Stofen, but after further searching police determined her true identity was Megan Stofen and there was an arrest warrant for her out of West Virginia. She was taken into custody and also charged with obstructing police business.

— Talisa Lewis, Independence Square, was charged with obstructing police business after they were called to her apartment on March 14 and she denied there was a man in her house. Lewis reportedly told police to search upstairs first, but instead they went to the kitchen where they found a man matching the description leaving through the back door and climbing a fence.

COUNTY BRIEFING
Columbiana sets K signups

Kindergarten pre-screening/registration will be held April 3-5 at the Joshua Dixon Elementary in Columbiana. Appointments must be scheduled during the week of March 25. Call 330-482-5355 between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Once an appointment is scheduled, bring your child, along with their birth certificate, Social Security card, immunization records, proof of residency in Columbiana, and custody papers (if applicable). Plan to stay one hour. Open enrollment process begins at the superintendent’s office. Call Nancy Tirpak at 330-482-5352 ext. 34315 to get paperwork started before registration.

Titanic sails to the library

At 6 p.m. Tuesday, Thomas Edward will present “Titanic, Tragedy of Errors” at the East Palestine Memorial Public Library. He will present the history of the Titanic from the ship’s inception to its collision with an iceberg on April 14, 1912. Over forty errors and circumstances will be discussed which led to a disaster that should not have occurred. To register to attend, call 426-3778.

PLEAS COURT
New Cases

Jacob L. Terry, Lisbon, vs. Ohio Pet Food, Inc., appeal sought of worker’s compensation claim.

Huntington National Bank vs. William Joseph Smith, et al., foreclosure sought for property on Bank Street, East Liverpool.

Home Savings Bank vs. Gloria J. Van Etten, et al., foreclosure sought for property on Park Way, East Liverpool.

Bank of America vs. Patricia L. Murphy, et al., foreclosure sought for property on Benton Road, Salem.

Todd McGaffic, East Liverpool, vs. Amanda McGaffic, East Liverpool, divorce sought.

Docket Entries

Stacey Lee Sprouse, Wellsville, and Lucas McCain Sprouse, Wellsville, dissolution granted.

MidFirst Bank vs. Whitney E. Godwin, et a., claims dismissed.

Wells Fargo Bank vs. Russell Pieri, et al., foreclosure ordered for property on East Main Street, East Palestine.

County Treasurer vs. Gwen R. Allen, defendant has filed bankruptcy, case on hold.

GRAND JURY

LISBON — Carlos Acevedo, 50, East Park Avenue, Columbiana, was served a secret indictment for possession of drugs for a fifth-degree felony for allegedly having alprazolam when he had a felony drug-related record on March 18, 2018.

The indictment was issued by the grand jury in September.

MUNICIPAL

LISBON — In county Municipal Court, Krista L. Luckino, 47, St. George Street, East Liverpool, was bound over to the grand jury for charges of failure to comply and felonious assault for allegedly refusing to get out of the vehicle when ordered to do so on March 12 and then striking two Wellsville police officers with her vehicle.

William Shields, 41, Smithfield Road, East Liverpool, was credited with a day in jail, sentenced to an additional nine days in jail, fined $975, had his license suspended for a year and required 30 hours community service for OVI breath .17-plus first offense and failure to control.

An April 30 pretrial was set for Frederick R. Nunez, 42, South Market Street, East Palestine, cited with OVI first offense and no license.

An April 29 pretrial was set for Chad A. Smith, 38, Jerome Street, Lisbon, cited with OVI first offense and failure to control.

A May 9 pretrial was set for Samantha J. Stone, 31, Superior Avenue, Salem, charged with aggravated menacing for allegedly yelling vulgarities at Michael Spencer, the father of her child, and turned the SUV around to drive toward Spencer and his girlfriend, Patricia Hamilton, forcing them to move out of the way to avoid being struck on March 8.

Ronald W. Boyer, 56, Hisey Road, New Waterford, was fined $250 and credited with three days in jail for aggravated menacing for threatening to kill Ellen Foor if she would not let her see his son on Feb. 9.

An April 1 pretrial was set for Bobby Joe Hill, 53, Sherman Street, Lisbon, charged with assault for allegedly punching Cambria Kauffman several times in the head and twice in the ribs and hand with a metal T-ball bat on Tuesday.

An April 1 pretrial was set for Cambria I. Kauffman, 19, Sherman Street, Lisbon, charged with assault for allegedly striking Bobby Joe Hill in the face several times and headbutting him in the face on Tuesday.

A March 28 pretrial was set for Lucas L. Sims, 34, county jail, Lisbon, charged with illegal conveyance of prohibited items onto the grounds of a detention facility for allegedly having Tamilia Sims and Linda McKinnon bring him a cell phone to the jail.

Kayla R. Mennell, 22, Walnut Street, East Palestine, was fined $500 for falsification, resisting arrest and disorderly conduct. An assault charge for allegedly striking Christopher Freeman in the face was dismissed. On Aug. 1, Mennell was yelling and cursing at the home where she was staying in East Palestine, had to be carried from the house to the cruiser and the cruiser into the police station and told police she was her sister.

Brandon M. House, 23, Summer Road, East Rochester, was credited with two days in jail, sentenced to 28 additional days, fined $350 and required 40 hours community service for criminal trespassing, falsification and three counts of drug paraphernalia. House told deputies his name was Jeff House when he was found in a SUV in the wooded area behind Forest Lanes Bowling Alley with a digital scale, a clear glass pipe with residue and a small mirror with white residue in the center consol.

Joseph E. Davis, 33, East Garfield Road, East Liverpool, was fined $330 for driving under suspension, failure to control and a seat belt violation.

An April 29 pretrial was set for Nicholas J. Conway, 38, New Middletown, charged with violating a temporary protection order for allegedly going to the workplace of Danielle Bowers and attempting to get into her vehicle on March 13.

A March 25 pretrial was set for Ethan C. Ruffner, 28, Union Ridge Road, Negley, charged with resisting arrest, criminal mischief and possession of drugs. On March 9 Ruffner allegedly was kicking the cell toilet attempting to damage village property, tensing up to prevent police from removing his handcuffs and had a sandwich baggie of marijuana.

Jeffrey Riachy, 47, Rigby Street, East

Liverpool, was fined $150, credited with four days served in jail and required 30 hours community service for theft for taking a can of liquor from the Circle K in East Palestine without paying for it on 25 occasions between Aug. 15 and Oct. 17. An April 11 restitution hearing was set.

Alison J. Grimes, 20, East Washington Street, Lisbon, was fined $150 and credited with two days in jail for disorderly conduct amended from domestic violence for hitting her ex-boyfriend, Zachary Rudder, in the mouth on March 13.

A May 14 pretrial was set for Jonathan E. Mitchell, 45, Scroggs Road, Lisbon, charged with assault for allegedly getting into a fight with Matthew Kern at Leetonia Eagles.

A May 9 pretrial was set for Richard Allen Powell, 30, East Liverpool Road, East Liverpool, cited with possession of drugs and marijuana paraphernalia.

Richard Vecchio, 56, state Route 164, Lisbon, was fined $150 for public intoxication.

James L. Dawson, 29, 16 School Road, Irondale, was fined $250 for use of an unauthorized plate.

An April 30 pretrial was set for Rick Allen Fisher, 28, Chester, W.Va., cited with drug paraphernalia.

A May 14 pretrial was set for Rebecca E. Steed, 46, Oak Street, Beloit, cited with possession of drugs for allegedly having a cut straw and buprenorphine on Dec. 17.

Thought for today

“Better to be alone than with a bad companion.” — Spanish expression.

NOTICE OF FIRST AMENDMENT TO MAJOR UTILITY FACILITY

South Field Energy LLC has filed an application with the Ohio Power Siting Board in Case No. 19-0638-EL-BGA seeking a First Amendment to its Certificate of Environmental Compatibility and Public Need Issued for a Natural Gas-Fired Combined Cycle Generating Facility to be located in Yellow Creek and Madison Townships, Columbiana County, Ohio. The purpose of the requested First Amendment is to slightly shift the southern boundary of the construction area on the facility property to accommodate construction activities, and to allow for the construction of an additional approximately 20-acre laydown yard on property located at 17547 State Route 45, Wellsville, OH 43968. More information may be obtained by writing to the offices of the Ohio Power Siting Board, 180 E. Broad St., Columbus, OH 43215 or by calling the Ohio Power Siting Board at 1-866-270-6772. A copy of the First Amendment application is available at the Ohio Power Siting Board’s main office at 180 E. Broad St., 11th Floor, Columbus, OH 43215, the Columbiana County Public Library, 332 N. Middle Street, Columbiana, OH 44408, the Wellsville Carnegie Public Library at 115 9th Street, Wellsville, OH 43968, and online at the Ohio Power Siting Board’s website at http://dis.puc.state.oh.us by typing in Case No. 19-0638-EL-BGA. Affected persons may file comments or motions to intervene with the Board. Such comments or motions should be addressed to Ohio Power Siting Board, 180 E. Broad St., Columbus, OH 43215 and cite Case No. 19-0638-EL-BGA.

CD Specials

25 Month: 3.15% APY*

15 Month: 2.95% APY*

11 Month: 2.76% APY*

- Advertised rates are subject to change
- Penalty for early withdrawal
- Minimum to open and earn rate is $5,000.00
- If any fees apply earning may be reduced
- Effective date 2/5/2019

* Annual Percentage Yield (APY)

Member FDIC

Wellsville Office
565 Main Street
Wellsville, OH 43968
330-532-1517

Calcutta Office
49028 Foulks Drive
Calcutta, OH 43920
330-385-4323

The State of Ohio
The County of Columbiana

Tammie McIntosh being duly sworn, says that she is the Publisher of the Morning Journal, a newspaper, printed, published, and of general circulation in said county of Columbiana; that the notice of which is attached a copy, was for 1 day published in said newspaper commencing on the 22nd day of March A.D., 2019.

Tammie McIntosh

Subscribed by the said Tammie McIntosh and by her affirmed to before me, this 22nd of March A.D., 2019.

Printer's Fee $267.00
Account Number L42963

Cynthia Kay Hoy
CYNTHIA KAY HOY

NOTARY PUBLIC
STATE OF OHIO

My Commission Expires
December 12, 2021

This foregoing document was electronically filed with the Public Utilities

Commission of Ohio Docketing Information System on

4/3/2019 6:06:44 AM

in

Case No(s). 19-0638-EL-BGA

Summary: Proof of Pub of Public Notice electronically filed by Mr. MacDonald W Taylor on behalf of South Field Energy LLC