ENTRY

Entered in the Journal on April 23, 2019

{¶ 1} The Dayton Power and Light Company (DP&L) is a public utility as defined under R.C. 4905.02, and, as such, is subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission. On February 22, 2016, DP&L filed an application for a standard service offer pursuant to R.C. 4928.141. DP&L's application is for an electric security plan (ESP) in accordance with R.C. 4928.143. Additionally, DP&L filed accompanying applications for approval of revised tariffs and for approval of certain accounting authority.

{¶ 2} On October 11, 2016, DP&L filed an amended application for an ESP.

{¶ 3} On January 30, 2017, a stipulation and recommendation was filed by DP&L and various parties. Subsequently, on March 14, 2017, an amended stipulation and recommendation (Amended Stipulation) was filed by DP&L and various parties, including additional parties that were not part of the first stipulation.

{¶ 4} On October 20, 2017, the Commission issued its Opinion and Order (Opinion and Order) modifying and approving the Amended Stipulation filed by DP&L and various other parties on March 14, 2017.

{¶ 5} The Opinion and Order was the subject of several rounds of rehearing. As is relevant herein, on September 19, 2018, the Commission issued a Third Entry on Rehearing granting, in part, and denying, in part, DP&L's application for rehearing and denying all other applications for rehearing.

{¶ 6} On October 19, 2018, Interstate Gas Supply, Inc. (IGS) filed a notice of withdrawal from the Amended Stipulation (Notice of Withdrawal) and a motion for a procedural schedule. Ultimately, the hearing necessitated by IGS's Notice of Withdrawal commenced on April 1, 2019, and continued through April 3, 2019; rebuttal testimony was taken on April 15, 2019. Portions of the hearing were conducted in closed, confidential sessions due to the discussion of designated confidential trade secret information. Several intervening parties in the case signed protective agreements with DP&L in order to access the confidential information, and those parties now seek access to the same.

{¶ 7} The attorney examiner finds that the following persons representing DP&L, as well as Ohio Consumers' Counsel (OCC), the City of Dayton (the City), Honda of America Mfg., Inc.
