2. Regulations (Cont'd)

2.10 Use of Service

2.10.1 Residential and Small Business Local Exchange Service

2.10.1.1 Effective April 1, 2006, Residential and Small Business local exchange service as described in Section 11 and Section 12 herein will no longer be available to new customers residing in areas in which local exchange service is provided by any affiliate or subsidiary of Verizon not subject to this tariff. Existing customers will continue to be able to move, make additions to, or change their service.

2.10.1.2 Effective May 1, 2007, Residential and Small Business local exchange service as described in Section 11 and Section 12 herein will no longer be available to new customers of local exchange service requiring the establishment of new telephone numbers/ANIs. Existing customers will continue to be able to move, make additions to, or change their service.

2.10.1.3 Effective February 1, 2009, the Company will no longer offer local exchange service to new residential or small business customers in areas in which local exchange service is provided by any subsidiary or affiliate of Verizon not subject to this tariff. Residential and small business customers currently subscribed to Company local service will no longer be able to move, add to, or change the service to which they are subscribed, except that customers may switch to a different Company service for which they are eligible if they wish, and customers may cancel local features on their service if they wish.

2.10.1.4 Effective October 1, 2019, the Company will no longer offer local exchange service to new residential customers as described in this tariff (Section 4, Consumer Local Exchange Service-Facility Based). Also effective October 1, 2019, existing residential customers currently subscribed to any of the Company local exchange service offerings described in this tariff (Section 4, Consumer Local Exchange Service-Facility Based) will no longer be able to move, add to, or change the service to which they are subscribed.

2.10.2 Bundled Services

Disconnection of bundled services will comply with the rules set forth in the Minimum Telephone Service Standards as codified chapter 4901:1-5 of the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC).

4. Consumer Local Exchange Service-Facility Based

- A. Application of Residence Service: Residential service is defined as service that is furnished (1) in private homes or apartments, including all parts of the subscriber's domestic establishment, for domestic use and not for substantial occupational use; (2) in college fraternity or sorority houses, college dormitories, convents and monasteries for domestic rather than occupational use in residential quarters; (3) used for purposes of study by a clergyman located in a church. The Company reserves the right to disconnect customer's residential service upon appropriate customer notification if it is determined that usage is not consistent with normal residential applications.
- B. Rates and Charges: Usage charges are based on local usage. Chargeable time for the customer shall begin when the called party answers and shall end upon disconnection by either party. Local calls are billed on a per call basis unless otherwise indicated. Calls are rounded to the next higher full minute. If the computed charge includes a fraction of a cent, the fraction is rounded to the nearest whole cent. Per-call calls will be charged according to the rate period the call originates in.
- C. All residential service set forth in this Section 4 of this tariff is presently only available to those customers who presently have service on lines with SBC Ohio, or with MCImetro or another carrier who provisions service either via resale of SBC Ohio services or via UNE-Platform service provided by SBC Ohio.

Effective April 1, 2006, local exchange service as described in this section will no longer be available to new customers residing in areas in which local exchange service is provided by any affiliate or subsidiary of Verizon not subject to this tariff. Existing customers will continue to be able to move, make additions to, or change their service.

Effective May 1, 2007, local exchange service as described in this section will no longer be available to new customers of local exchange service requiring the establishment of new telephone numbers/ANIs. Existing customers will continue to be able to move, make additions to, or change their service.

Effective February 1, 2009, the Company will no longer offer local exchange service to new residential customers in areas in which local exchange service is provided by any subsidiary or affiliate of Verizon not subject to this tariff. Residential customers currently subscribed to Company local service will no longer be able to move, add to, or change the service to which they are subscribed, except that customers may switch to a different Company service for which they are eligible if they wish, and customers may cancel local features on their service if they wish.

Effective October 1, 2019, the Company will no longer offer local exchange service to new residential customers as described in this section (Section 4, Consumer Local Exchange Service-Facility Based). Also effective October 1, 2019, existing residential customers currently subscribed to any of the Company local exchange service offerings described in this section (Section 4, Consumer Local Exchange Service-Facility Based) will no longer be able to move, add to, or change the service to which they are subscribed.
