Subject: How Stand Thee O Members of the Board?

Ladies and Gentlemen of the jury, for that in the end is what you are, shall Lake Erie live on as it has, untrammelled, for geologic ages or shall its precious waters be parted to receive six huge machines extending to its depths and rising high above its surface in the name of an at best intermittent generation of electrical power that might be needed in a distant future if a doubtful harmful climate may obtain?

The urge to save humanity is almost always a false face to rule it.

___H.L. Mencken

Making a forecast is easy. Being right is the hard part.

___Reid A. Bryson

The despoliation of Lake Erie begins at the moment a vote of approval for the Ice Breaker project is cast. The climatic problem that this irrevocable step is meant to combat is not with us today nor will it be tomorrow. Proponents of climate alarm have yet to advance an accurate prediction, e.g. "In the authors lifetimes, we have so far survived predictions of silent spring, the population bomb, global famine, oxygen depletion, global cooling, forest die-off from acid rain, and global warming." Lukewarming, 2016 Michaels and Kappenberger.

So there it is. The jury is out. The vote must come.
May your vote be true.

Thank you all,
Jack Joyce
