Subject: RE: Icebreaker Wind

Thank you for acknowledging my comments. I would like to add one more thing. Some time in the future, these wind turbines will break down and/or become obsolete. I can just imagine 1500 derelict wind turbines becoming a permanent scar on our beautiful lake, and a permanent hazard to navigation, if the company that owns them goes bankrupt and there is no money available to remove them, and we, the taxpayers, would have to foot the bill.
