Experience & Plans

Tobelmann Energy Brokers, Inc. (TEB) has been incorporated in Pennsylvania since January 2009. Prior to incorporation, the founder and president, John Tobelmann had over 17 years in the energy procurement industry.

Since January 2010, when the retail electricity rate caps were removed in Pennsylvania, TEB has secured electricity and natural gas supply for over 500 customers in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Massachusetts, Illinois, Delaware, New Jersey, Connecticut, New York, Ohio and Texas.

TEB may from time to time have customers with locations in other states like Ohio [where we do not normally operate] who request our services in those states. Other than those opportunities, we are not actively marketing our service in Ohio. We are interested in hiring a sales representative in Ohio.

TEB does not bill our customers. TEB does not contract directly with its customers. Rather we facilitate a sales contract between one of many suppliers [that we work with] and the customer. The supplier bills the customer directly and if that customer pays their bill, the supplier pays TEB a commission. If there are any problems between the supplier and the customer, the customer is instructed to first contact TEB to facilitate a resolution. But the ultimate responsibility to solve any problem resides with the supplier. Since our inception, we have not had one problem that we were not able to resolve amicably and no customers to my knowledge have terminated their contract prematurely.

All of the requirements mandated in 4928.10 of the Revised Code are spelled out in the supplier contract, which is provided at the time of contracting.

2 Too many accounts with balances

FICO[®] Scores consider the total number of accounts a consumer holds with balances, including credit card balance amounts that appear from the most recent account statements-even if that balance was paid off. Your score was impacted by having too many accounts with balances.

Your FICO[®] Score History

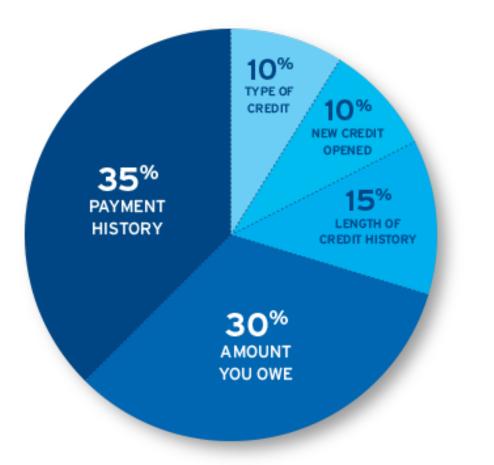

The FICO[®] Score "as of" dates shown on this page are the dates your score was provided from Equifax. It is available to you about 10 days later to allow time for Citi to validate the information.
