NOTICE OF INTERVENTION AS PARTY BY THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF CEDARVILLE TOWNSHIP, GREENE COUNTY, OHIO

Pursuant to Ohio Revised Code §4906.08 and Ohio Administrative Code §4906-2-12, the Board of Trustees of Cedarville Township, Greene County, Ohio (“Cedarville Township Board of Trustees”) submits its notice of intervention in the above referenced proceeding. On April 16, 2021, Kingwood Solar I LLC filed an application with the Ohio Power Siting Board to construct and operate a 175 megawatt solar-powered electric generating facility (“Kingwood Solar Project”) to be located in Cedarville, Miami and Xenia Townships of Greene County, Ohio.

In accordance with the requirements of OAC §4906-2-12, the Cedarville Township Board of Trustees state as follows.

1. The Cedarville Township Board of Trustees is the duly elected body authorized to act for Cedarville Township and has taken the required action to intervene, as certified by the resolution attached as EXHIBIT A to this Notice.
2. The proposed Kingwood Solar Project will be located partially within Cedarville Township, with such area under the jurisdiction of the Cedarville Township Board of Trustees.

3. The Cedarville Township Board of Trustees intends to intervene in this case because it has an extensive interest in the proposed project and proceedings as the elected representatives of the citizens of Cedarville Township.
4. Because the proposed project is likely to have some adverse effect on roads, properties and citizens located and/or residing in Cedarville Township, the Cedarville Township Board of Trustees has a direct and substantial interest in this proceeding.
5. Cedarville Township's interests in this case are not and cannot be adequately represented by another party, and the participation of the Cedarville Township Board of Trustees will contribute to a just and expeditious resolution of this matter and will not unduly delay the proceedings or unjustly prejudice any party.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Cedarville Township Board of Trustees
