Hello,

Regarding the case No. OH3238015224D, I was pulled over in Ohio about a month ago and the officer had told me that my license was suspended because the medical card was expired. I had renewed the medical card about 6 months before this had happened and had sent the paperwork to the Secretary of State but upon their mistake they did not update the renewal in their system.

I would like to request for an Administrative Hearing in order for this case to be resolved. My contact information is listed above. I hope to hear from you soon.

Thank you,

Mircea Fritea
