*Re: In the Matter of The Application of the Ohio Power
Company for a Waiver of Rule 4901:1-10-33 (C)(13), Ohio
Administrative Code, Case No. 19-1389-EL-WVR*

Dear Ms. Troupe:

On July 2, 2019 AEP Ohio filed an application for a waiver in this case. The Commission, on September 26, 2019, granted the waiver on a temporary basis implementing a time for additional information to be filed. Through its Second Finding and Order in this case, the Commission temporarily extended the waiver. On April 26, 2021, the Company submitted a request for further extend the waiver, which remains pending.

In the Stipulation approved by the Commission in Case No. 19-1475-EL-RDR, the Company committed to withdrawing its waiver request in this proceeding within six months of October 27, 2021. Per the enclosed tariffs to be effective January 1, 2022 (which tariffs will also be filed in Case No. 89-6007-EL-TRF), the Company is extending its due date to 21 days after the mailing of the bill, which fully complies with OAC 4901:1-10-33. Accordingly, the Company hereby withdraws its request to extend the waiver in this proceeding.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully Submitted,

//s/ Steven T. Nourse

SCHEDULE RS
(Residential Service)

Special Terms and Conditions

This schedule is subject to the Company's Terms and Conditions of Service.

This schedule is available to customers engaged in agricultural enterprises where service is taken through 1 meter for that customer's primary residence, and not more than 100 KW of connected electrical load is outside the residence. This schedule is not extended to operations of a commercial nature or operations such as processing, preparing, or distributing products not raised or produced on the farm, unless such operation is incidental to the usual residential and farm uses.

Where the residential customer requests 3-phase service, this schedule will apply if the customer pays to the Company the difference between constructing single-phase and 3-phase service. Where motors or heating equipment are used for commercial or industrial purposes, the applicable general service schedule will apply to such service.

Customers with cogeneration and/or small power production facilities which qualify under Section 210 of the Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act of 1978 shall take service under Schedule COGEN/SPP, Schedule NEMS, or by special agreement with the Company. All other customers having sources of electrical energy supply other than the Company shall take service under the applicable Residential Schedule or Schedule NEMS.

At its discretion, the Company may require that Company-owned metering be installed to monitor the customer's generation. The Company reserves the right to inspect the customer's relays and protective equipment at all reasonable times.
