Case No. 21-1214-GA-ABN

SUMMARY

On December 3, 2021, Northeast Ohio Natural Gas Corp. (Northeast) filed an application seeking to abandon service to two premises in Trumbull County, Ohio. These premises are serviced through a pipeline supplied by a single well with intermittent pressures and volumes. Northeast has determined that the pipeline is no longer economically feasible to operate.

The affected property owners have agreed to a disconnection and abandonment of service, and have been compensated as well as connected to Dominion Energy Ohio's distribution system for service.

STAFF REVIEW

Staff has reviewed the application filed in the above case and finds it to be reasonable and in the public interest.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION

Staff finds that the application filed by Northeast is reasonable and should be approved.
