Description: Not EVERYTHING has to become more expensive right now. Shame on Columbia Gas for their greedy, money-hungry ways. Consumers need protected. We are getting hit with price hikes in every. single. direction. by every corporation possible when all we are trying to do is survive. The increases they are proposing would making living in my place impossible. I have to stick to a strict budget, and the increase they are proposing would (from $17 to $46 to $80) would cause the price of my bill to more than double before I even use any actual gas. Kicking consumers when they're already down just to make more money is disgusting.

Sincerely,

Bradley Berner
