Description: columbia gas should not be allowed to raise their profit margins. they are a monopoly and have no business increasing prices as they have no real competitors in columbus. they already have a stranglehold on the residents of this city and price gouging them would be outrageous. low income families will be hurt the most by this and all for corporate greed. shareholders should not matter over human life and livelihood. i don't care about your profits, you are a public utility.

Sincerely,

Angela Donnellan
