SUBJECT: Columbia Gas of Ohio - Protest Rate Case

Please docket the associated customer comment and/or attached in the case number referenced above under "Public Comments". This information was received by the Consumer Services Division through alternate channels and is being forwarded to be filed formally. This information is not the opinion of Staff and should not be viewed as such.

Description: Tripping of the delivery fee of gas regardless of amount of gas used is insane. There are already months where we use next to no gas and the current rate for "delivery". Is far too high as is. All such fees Should be based on amount of product used. Under no circumstances should a resident using next to no gas face nearly $50 in delivery fee charges. This is putting an undo financial burden On consumers at a time Of unprecedented inflation and cost of living increases. A household lowering their thermostat to save on energy bills would not be able to offset fees assessed regardless of amount used. Delivery fees in general should always be assessed based on use. This is a horrible bill for Ohio and only the utility will profit and benefit from this greedy proposal.
