A-13. Company history

Future Now Energy LTD. was formed in response to the deregulation of natural gas market. Future Now Energy LTD. is a full-service energy supplier. Our mission is to provide unique energy solutions with a stable, well-priced alternative to a customer's current natural gas supplier.

Future Now Energy LTD. has the expertise of over 21 years to structure an energy supply portfolio to meet individual needs. We manage interstate transportation contracts, gas storage and gas supplies via interstate and intrastate pipelines.

We carefully administer energy purchases and nominations, monitor energy deliveries and reconcile all deliveries and imbalances with the local distribution companies (LDCs).

Nomination Services

Future Now Energy LTD. prepares gas requirement forecasts and submits necessary LDC and pipeline nominations. Future Now Energy LTD. manages Electronic Bulletin Board requirements as well.

Storage Service

Public Utilities Commission

Through the use of gas storage facilities, Future Now Energy LTD. provides additional gas supply security to the customer by maintaining gas in storage for redelivery to a variety of interstate pipelines and some LDCs to be used during the peak consumption period or as part of a gas supply portfolio.

Volume Balancing

Since daily and monthly imbalance penalties are now being imposed by many LDCs, Future Now Energy LTD. will manage gas supplies to stay within acceptable tolerances and to minimize or eliminate the customer's exposure to penalties. Future Now Energy LTD. is responsible for balancing requirements on the interstate pipelines and the LDCs.

Various Pricing Options

Fixed Price: a negotiated price – fixed for the life of the contract. Includes all supply and transportation costs to a delivery point specified in the contract.

Index Price (Variable): based on a published index, traded at a selected point in the market. Price will vary with market fluctuation (up or down) over the term of the contract.

Trigger Prices (Future Choice Plan): allows change back and forth from index pricing to fixed, when market conditions are favorable.

Audit Utility Charges

Future Now Energy LTD. audits LDC monthly billings for accuracy with regard to both transportation volume and rates charged.

Customized Reports
