RE: In the Matter of the Haydon-Roberts 345 kV Transmission Line Cut-ins to Cosgray Station Project
Case No. 22-0633-EL-BLN
Proof of Compliance with O.A.C. 4906-6-07 and 4906-6-08

Dear Ms. Troupe:

Ohio Power Company hereby files this proof of compliance with the notice requirements set forth in Rules 4906-6-07 and 4906-6-08 of the Ohio Administrative Code for the above-referenced project applications:

1. In Accordance with O.A.C. 4906-06-08(B), Ohio Power Company Notification Letters describing the project to each property owner and affected tenant via USPS First Class Mail on July 21, 2022. The letter met all the requirements of this rule.
2. In accordance with O.A.C. 4906-06-07(A)(2), Ohio Power Company shipped physical copies of the Letter of Notification Application to libraries and public officials on July 22, 2022, via FedEx.
3. In accordance with O.A.C. 4906-6-08(A), Ohio Power Company published public notices of the Letter of Notification in the Columbus Dispatch in the project's area on July 22, 2022.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/ Hector Garcia-Santana

After printing this label:

1. Use the 'Print' button on this page to print your label to your laser or inkjet printer.
2. Fold the printed page along the horizontal line.
3. Place label in shipping pouch and affix it to your shipment so that the barcode portion of the label can be read and scanned.

Warning: Use only the printed original label for shipping. Using a photocopy of this label for shipping purposes is fraudulent and could result in additional billing charges, along with the cancellation of your FedEx account number.

Use of this system constitutes your agreement to the service conditions in the current FedEx Service Guide, available on fedex.com. FedEx will not be responsible for any claim in excess of $100 per package, whether the result of loss, damage, delay, non-delivery, misdelivery, or misinformation, unless you declare a higher value, pay an additional charge, document your actual loss and file a timely claim. Limitations found in the current FedEx Service Guide apply. Your right to recover from FedEx for any loss, including intrinsic value of the package, loss of sales, income interest, profit, attorney's fees, costs, and other forms of damage whether direct, incidental, consequential, or special is limited to the greater of $100 or the authorized declared value. Recovery cannot exceed actual documented loss. Maximum for items of extraordinary value is $1,000, e.g. jewelry, precious metals, negotiable instruments and other items listed in our ServiceGuide. Written claims must be filed within strict time limits, see current FedEx Service Guide.

RE: Letter of Notification
Hayden-Roberts 345 kV Transmission Line Cut-ins to Cosgray Station Project
Case No. 22-0633-EL-BLN

Dear Neighbor,

You are receiving this letter because public records show you own property or live near a proposed electric transmission project.

AEP Ohio representatives plan to build approximately .5 miles of 138-kilovolt (kV) transmission line into the Cosgray Substation, located off Cosgray Road in Hilliard, Franklin County. This project is related to the Cosgray Station Project, Case No. 22-0488-EL-BLN. The company needs to build a new substation to provide electricity to a customer's facility and meet load growth demand in the area.

Crews plan to start construction this fall and finish by next spring.

AEP Ohio representatives have filed a Letter of Notification for this component of the project with the Ohio Power Siting Board (OPSB) as the Hayden-Roberts 345 kV Transmission Line Cut-ins to Cosgray Station Project, Case No. 22-0633-EL-BLN.

Please see Page 3 of this document for key regulatory information associated with this project.

You may comment on this project by:

- Calling Meghan Blankenship at (304) 784-0556
- Sending an email to mdblankenship@aep.com
- Sending your comments directly to the OPSB at 180 East Broad Street, Columbus, Ohio, 43215-3793. You may also contact the OPSB at (866) 270-6772 or contactopsb@puc.state.oh.us. (Note: You can file petitions to intervene in the OPSB process to the siting board up to 10 days following the public notice announcing the project)

The following map shows the project area. Please use this map only as a general guide due to its reduced scale and limited detail.

Feel free to contact me and I would be happy to answer any questions about this project.

Sincerely,

Meghan Blankenship

Hayden-Roberts 345 kV Transmission Line Cut-ins to Cosgray Station Project Regulatory Information Q&A

Representatives of AEP Ohio Power Company, (OPCO) have prepared and filed a Letter of Notification to the State of Ohio Power Siting Board (OPSB) for this proposed project. We must complete this filing when we make certain changes to our transmission facilities, according to Rule 4906-6-01, et. seq., of the Ohio Administrative Code.

What is the name and docket number for this project filing?

The company has filed this project with the OPSB as the Hayden-Roberts 345 kV Transmission Line Cut-ins to Cosgray Station Project, Case No. 22-0633-EL-BLN.

What happens now that the letter has been filed?

The Letter of Notification to construct, operate and maintain this facility awaits OPSB review.

Where can I find physical copies of the Letter of Notification?

Copies of the actual Letter of Notification, including specific details about the location and construction, are available for public inspection at the following locations:

- Columbus Metropolitan Library – Main Library, 96 South Grant Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43215

RE: Letter of Notification
Hayden-Roberts 345 kV Transmission Line Cut-ins to Cosgray Station Project
Case No. 22-0633-EL-BLN

Dear «ADDRESSEE»:

You are receiving this letter because AEP Ohio officials have proposed electric transmission project in your area.

AEP Ohio representatives plan to build approximately .5 miles of 138-kilovolt (kV) transmission line into the Cosgray Substation, located off Cosgray Road in Hilliard, Franklin County. This project is related to the Cosgray Station Project, Case No. 22-0488-EL-BLN. The company needs to build a new substation to provide electricity to a customer's facility and meet load growth demand in the area.

Crews plan to start construction this fall and finish by next spring.

AEP Ohio representatives have filed a Letter of Notification for this component of the project with the Ohio Power Siting Board (OPSB) as the Hayden-Roberts 345 kV Transmission Line Cut-ins to Cosgray Station Project, Case No. 22-0633-EL-BLN.

Please see the attached Letter of Notification, which we must submit to the OPSB when we make certain changes to our transmission facilities. The submission complies with Rule 4906-6-01, et. seq., of the Ohio Administrative Code.

The Letter of Notification to construct, operate and maintain this facility awaits review by the OPSB. Please make this Letter of Notification available to the public. We are also communicating with landowners in the project area.

Please contact me at (304) 784-0556 or mdblankenship@aep.com if you would like an electronic copy of the Letter of Notification or if you have any questions about this project.

Sincerely,

Meghan Blankenship

House OKs bill to protect contraception

Dems push back against conservative SCOTUS

Alan Fram

WASHINGTON – The right to use contraceptives would be enshrined in law under a measure that Democrats pushed through the House on Thursday, their latest campaign-season response to concerns a conservative Supreme Court that already erased federal abortion rights could go further.

The House’s 228-195 roll call was largely along party lines and sent the measure to the Senate, where it seemed doomed. The bill is the latest example of Democrats latching onto their own version of culture war battles to appeal to female, progressive and minority voters by casting the court and Republicans as extremists intent on obliterating rights taken for granted for years.

Democrats said that with the high court recently overturning the landmark Roe v. Wade decision from 1973, the justices and GOP lawmakers are on track to go even further than banning abortions.

“This extremism is about one thing: control of women. We will not let this happen,” said Rep. Kathy Manning, D-North Carolina, who sponsored the legislation. All of the bill’s nearly 150 co-sponsors are Democrats. Addressing fellow lawmakers, she added, “Women and girls across this country are watching you, and they want to know: Are you willing to stand up for them?”

In his opinion overturning Roe last month, Justice Clarence Thomas wrote that the court should now review other precedents. He mentioned rulings that affirmed the rights of same-sex marriage in 2015, same-sex intimate relationships in 2003 and married couples’ use of contraceptives in 1965.

Thomas did not specify a 1972 decision that legalized the use of contraceptives by unmarried people as well, but Democrats say they consider that at risk as well.

Republicans said the bill went too far. They said it would lead to more abortions, which supporters deny, allow the use of drugs not yet fully approved by the Food and Drug Administration and force health care providers to offer contraceptives, even if that contradicted their religious beliefs.

“Women deserve the truth, not more fear and misinformation that forces an extreme agenda on the American people,” said Rep. Cathy McMorris Rodgers, R-Washington.

Every Democrat supported the legislation, while Republicans overwhelmingly opposed it by 195-8. The House Democrats’ campaign committee quickly jumped on that disparity, with spokesperson Helen Kalla saying her party will “fight to protect women’s freedoms from the GOP’s sinister agenda.”

The measure seemed destined to become a campaign issue and not law. Minutes after House passage, Republicans blocked quick Senate approval of a similar bill. Support by at least 10 GOP senators would be needed to reach 60 votes, the threshold required for most legislation to pass in that chamber, which is divided 50-50.

The contraception bill explicitly allows the use of contraceptives and gives the medical community the right to provide them, covering “any device or medication used to prevent pregnancy.” Listed examples include oral contraceptives, injections, implants like intrauterine devices and emergency contraceptives, which prevent pregnancy several days after unprotected sex.

The bill lets the federal and state government, patients and health care providers bring civil suits against states or state officials that violate its provisions.

The House voted last week to revive a nationwide right to abortion, with every Republican voting no, and voted largely along party lines to bar prosecuting people traveling to states where abortion remains legal. Neither is expected to survive in the Senate.

Yet the House voted Tuesday to keep same-sex marriage legal, with 47 Republicans joining all Democrats in backing the measure. Though 157 Republicans voted no, that tally raised expectations that the bill could win enough support for GOP senators to pass, sending it to President Joe Biden for his signature.

Nearly all adults, 92%, called birth control “morally acceptable” in a Gallup poll in May. A PRRI poll in June showed about 8 in 10 said they opposed laws that restrict what types of birth control can be used to prevent pregnancy.

Susan B. Anthony Pro-Life America said the contraception legislation “seeks to bail out the abortion industry, trample conscience rights, and require uninhibited access to dangerous chemical abortion drugs.” The National Right to Life Committee said it “goes far beyond the scope of contraception” and would cover abortion pills like RU486, which supporters said was incorrect.

The measure drew a mixed reaction Wednesday from two of the Senate’s more moderate Republicans.

Sen. Susan Collins, R-Maine, said she was “most likely” to support the measure. Sen. Lisa Murkowski, R-Alaska, demurred, saying she was working on bipartisan legislation that she said would codify the rights to abortion and perhaps for contraception.

There are few state restrictions on contraceptive use, said Elizabeth Nash, who studies state reproductive health policies for the Guttmacher Institute, a research organization that supports abortion rights.

Nash said she was concerned that there will be efforts to curb emergency contraceptives and intrauterine devices and to help providers and institutions refuse to provide contraceptive services.
