Please rescind the SOBE Energy Solutions permit, they are not a utility. In two meetings in Youngstown, they have stated that they will superheat tire fragments, recycled plastic, and computer waste to create syngas, new plastic, and carbon black to sell for profit, while also shunting some of the little energy produced to mine cryptocurrency. None of these are the products of public utilities, which Dave Ferro, CEO of SOBE Thermal Energy Solutions, has claimed the plant to be.
