ENTRY

Entered in the Journal on March 8, 2023

I. SUMMARY

{¶ 1} The Commission extends the stay in the above-captioned proceedings for a period of six months, unless otherwise ordered.

II. DISCUSSION

{¶ 2} Concurrent with the Commission's four above-captioned investigations, the United States Department of Justice's District Attorney for the Southern District of Ohio (DOJ or U.S. Attorney) has been conducting an ongoing investigation into alleged corruption relating to Am. Sub. H.B. 6 and action through the Commission, resulting in a Deferred Prosecution Agreement (DPA)<sup>1</sup> and an indictment of several individuals. Throughout our four investigations, the Commission has sought to balance two principles: one, the Commission will follow the facts wherever they lead; and two, it is of the utmost importance that the Commission's investigations do not interfere with the DOJ's ongoing criminal investigation, or the parallel civil action instituted by Ohio Attorney General Dave Yost.

{¶ 3} On August 16, 2022, the U.S. Attorney filed a letter in the above-captioned proceedings, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 517, requesting that the Commission stay these matters for a period of six months, citing its concern that continued discovery in the Commission's four investigations may directly interfere with or impede the United States' ongoing investigation into corruption relating to Am. Sub. H.B. 6.<sup>2</sup> Specifically, the DOJ referenced the trial for two individuals charged in the indictment was scheduled to begin in January 2023.

{¶ 4} On August 24, 2022, the Commission issued an Entry staying the above-captioned proceedings at the request of the U.S. Attorney for a period of six months, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission. In the Entry, the Commission made it clear that avoiding interference with the ongoing federal criminal investigation by the U.S. Attorney is of the utmost importance, specifically citing our concerns with discovery in these proceedings interfering with the criminal trial. Moreover, the Commission's Entry made clear that we would allow for requests of reconsideration and/or extension of the stay, as may be appropriate. Entry (Aug. 24, 2022) at ¶¶ 76, 82, 84, 86.

<sup>1</sup> The DPA is between FirstEnergy Corp. and the United States Attorney for the Southern District of Ohio. United States of America v. FirstEnergy Corp. Case: 1:21-cr-86, July 22, 2021, Doc. 3.

<sup>2</sup> According to the DOJ: "The United States understands that substantial discovery is underway in the PUCO Proceedings, including written discovery and potential for depositions of numerous individuals and entities. The PUCO's investigations involve issues related to the United States' investigation, and the United States believes that continued discovery in the PUCO Proceedings may directly interfere with or impede the United States' ongoing investigation."

{¶ 5} By letter filed on February 23, 2023, the U.S. Attorney requested that the Commission extend the stay for an additional six months, citing the criminal trial for two individuals charged in the indictment commenced in January, 2023 and is currently underway. Similar to its August 16, 2022 request, the U.S. Attorney noted its concern that continued discovery in the Commission's four investigations may directly interfere with or impede the United States' ongoing investigation into corruption relating to Am. Sub. H.B. 6.

{¶ 6} We recognize the federal criminal trial is still ongoing, and, thus, the interference concerns cited in our August 24, 2022 Entry remain largely at issue. Moreover, we note that Judge Timothy Black has recently ordered that no information presented as evidence will be publicly released until a verdict has been reached by the jury. United States v. Larry Householder, S.D. Ohio No. 1:20-cr-77 (Feb. 16, 2023). As such, we find the U.S. Attorney's request to extend the existing stay to be reasonable. Thus, the stay will be extended for an additional six months from the date of this Entry, unless otherwise ordered. Similar to the August 24, 2022 Entry, the Commission notes that the stay will continue to apply to these cases in their entirety, including, but not limited to, all discovery and motion practice during the additional six-month period, except for rehearing applications and responsive memoranda related to this Entry, pursuant to R.C. 4903.10. Entry (Aug. 24, 2022) at ¶ 87.

III. ORDER

{¶ 7} It is, therefore,

{¶ 8} ORDERED, That the existing stay in these four proceedings be extended for a period of six months, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, consistent with this Entry. It is, further,

{¶ 9} ORDERED, That a copy of this Entry be served upon each party of record.
