Enter your question or comment	Hello, I'm the business manager for Laborers' Local 329 in Lima, OH. I'm trying to find the status on Birch Solar Farm, which was previously approved and then taken away due to community sentiment, and was wondering if there was an appeals process going on. We are very interested in the solar work that a site like that provides to our workforce here in Lima, Ohio and the surrounding counties. It's very disappointing that politics and policies are getting in the way of these projects, and I'd like to find out whose name I should drop in regards to their livelihoods being taken away by bureaucratic nonsense. Any accountability that you could provide would be greatly appreciated. I hope to hear from you soon.
