Project Name:	Clear Mountain Energy Center
Enter your Comment or Complaint:	As a fan of clean air and clean water, I'm in support of Clear Mountain Energy Center. We need more electricity, and I feel strongly that clean energy projects like this one are the only logical way for Ohio to meet that increased demand. To be able to convert sunlight into useful energy without creating any air pollution or water contamination risks is a no-brainer from my point of view. Not only will this project contribute to a stronger economy and a healthier future for the next generation, but it will do so without compromising the current agricultural use of the land today. When we accomplish the task of generating more power for our state, while protecting our environment, and still farming on the same ground, it will be a win-win-win for our community.
