I fully support alternative energy projects from alternative energy providers in Ohio. AEP no longer has the publics support after being involved in a bribery scandal for a bailout that still happened and made no effect on Central Ohioans electricity prices. In spite of that bailout AEP has raised it's rates multiple times. We need diverse sources of energy as well as diverse suppliers of energy in this State. AEP has lost the publics trust. The far right faction will tell us this is backed by Bill Gates. I say that's great. He has a track record over the past 2 decades of giving money away vs. raking it in via bribes and corruption. I appreciate you hearing my input, Brian Wright Columbus, Ohio
