1st Revised Sheet No. 1

A. APPLICATION OF TARIFF

This section contains general regulations applicable to Dedicated Communications Service (Private Line Service) furnished by the Company (herein after referred to as "the Company") for intraLATA communications between specified customer (the word "customer", as used in this tariff is used to refer to the customer, authorized user, or joint user of the service) locations and are in addition to other regulations, Non Recurring Charges and Prices specified elsewhere in this tariff. When reference is made in this tariff to regulations, prices specified in other tariffs of the Company, such tariffs as they now exist, or as they may be revised, added to or supplemented, are hereby adopted and made a part of this tariff.

1. Private line services are provided between specified customer locations twenty-four hours daily, seven days per week, with a minimum service period of one month (from date of installation) except as otherwise specifically stated. For tariff purposes, every month is considered to have thirty days.
2. Wherever facilities are provided jointly by the Company and one or more other telephone companies, the regulations, prices of such other telephone companies apply for the equipment and facilities furnished by them for use in connection with the interexchange service provided by the Company.
3. Connections involving private line service may not be made except as authorized in the Connections Section of this tariff and as described in Part 68 of the Federal Communications Commission's Rules and Regulations.
4. Private line services are provided between two or more points, either:
 - a. all points within Telephone Company's local exchange areas; or
 - b. one or more points within Telephone Company's local exchange areas and one or more points outside of Telephone Company's local exchange areas.
5. Private line services are subject to the interLATA traffic restriction for as long as that restriction remains in effect.
