THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF OHIO

In the Matter of the Application of Discounted Long Distance, Inc. to Abandon Service in Ohio. ) Case No. 01-1257-CT-ABN

ENTRY

The Commission finds:

- (1) On March 10, 1998, Discounted Long Distance, Inc. (DLD) was granted Certificate No. 90-5771 in Case No. 97-871-CT-ACE.
(2) On May 25, 2001, DLD filed the above-captioned application to abandon telecommunications service in Ohio. In support of the application, DLD stated that it does not operate in Ohio and has no customers in this state. Further, DLD stated that its assets were sold to Cincinnati Bell Long Distance, Inc.
(3) In view of its lack of operations and customers in this state, DLD's application to abandon service should be approved, Certificate No. 90-5771 should be cancelled, and DLD should be removed from the rolls of competitive telecommunications carriers in Ohio.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED, That DLD's application to abandon service be approved and that Case No. 01-1257-CT-ABN be closed of record. It is, further,

ORDERED, That Certificate No. 90-5771 be cancelled and that DLD be removed from the rolls of competitive telecommunications carriers in Ohio. It is, further,

ORDERED, That a copy of this entry be served upon each party of record.
