Case No. 90-9000-TP-TRF

Dear Mr. Vigorito:

Enclosed for filing please find an original and three (3) copies on behalf of AT&T Communications of Ohio, Inc. ("AT&T"). AT&T is an Ohio corporation authorized to do business in all 88 counties within Ohio for its competitive interexchange telecommunications services. These tariff revisions affect each and every county in the State of Ohio in which it is technologically and/or economically feasible for AT&T to provide service.

This filing is pursuant to the automatic approval guidelines specified in Docket Case No. 95-845-TP-COI and has made revisions to introduce a new promotion under the name "AT&T Joint Vendor Promotion" beginning June 7, 1999.

AT&T is making the aforementioned changes in an effort to remain competitive in the industry. See Exhibits A, B & C for further clarification.

These revisions become effective June 7, 1999. Please call me with any questions you may have.

Sincerely,

Sally Brian
