FACILITIES FOR INTERSTATE ACCESS

16. ADVANCED COMMUNICATIONS NETWORKS (Cont'd)

16.7 Asynchronous Transfer Mode Network Service (Cont'd)

(B) Service Description (Cont'd)

- Available Bit Rate (ABR): ATM layer transfer characteristics provided by the network may change subsequent to connection establishment, suitable for bursty data applications (i.e., Switched Megabit Data Service [SMDS]).
- Unspecified Bit Rate (UBR): ATM Service Category which does not specify traffic related service guarantees. No numerical commitments are made with respect to the cell loss ratio or as to the cell transfer delay experienced by cells on the connection (i.e., data applications, messaging and telecommuting from home to office).

Switched Virtual Circuits are not available at this time.

(C) Service Provisioning

ATM Network Service can be provisioned over DS3 and OC3c access channels. The access (T)(X) channels and any applicable transport provide connections from the customer's location(s) to the ATM port of the serving ATM switch within the Telephone Company's network. The appropriate rate elements from Section 5 are available for DS3 service. SONET facilities for the OC3c bandwidth are offered under Section 20. Non-SONET OC3c bandwidth is available as set forth under 16.7(F)(2)(d) and 16.7(G)(1)(f). The associated regulations, rates and charges from Section 5 or Section 20 apply in addition to the rates and charges associated with the ATM rate elements.

Ports are provisioned on a specified speed based upon the customer's request. The ATM ports will match the channel speed of the access channel. The actual throughput of customer traffic cannot exceed the bandwidth of the access channel and the port speed. Ports will be further defined and differentiated by the software definition requested and ascribed to the port. Software definition of ports must be selected by the customer. The possible port definitions are User to Network Interface (UNI), and Network to Network Interface (NNI). A UNI is an interface point between ATM end users and the Telephone Company ATM switch while a NNI is an interface between the Telephone Company's ATM switch and another provider's ATM switch, (i.e. IC or another telephone company).

ATM Network Service will be provisioned based upon mutually agreed upon date between the (T)(X) customer and the Telephone Company.

(F) Rate Regulations (Cont'd)

(4) Extended Service Plan (ESP)

(a) General

- (1) The terms and conditions specified herein are applicable to Asynchronous Transfer Mode Network Service and are in addition to other regulations as specified in this tariff.
- (2) The ATM Network Service DS3 and OC3c NNI Ports, the ATM Network Service DS3 and OC3c UNI Ports and the ATM Network Service OC3c Access Link rate elements are available under an ESP.
- (3) ATM Network Service ESP rates will not be greater than standard month-to-month ATM Network Service rates, for the same rate elements.
- (4) Three year and five year ESP rates will be equal to or less than the one year ESP rates. Decreases to the one year ESP rates will flow through to the three year and five year ESP rates.
- (5) Term commitments of one year, three year and five year are (T)(X) available to all customers at the applicable rates set forth in 16.7(G)(2) regardless of when they subscribe to a ESP arrangement. Rate elements must be ordered under the same ESP period.
- (6) The customer must designate on the ASR the term commitment for the (T)(X) ESP.
- (7) Inside moves, provided in accordance with 5.6.4, will not incur termination liability charges.
- (8) Outside moves provided in accordance with 5.6.4(B)(2) will allow the customer to retain the same ESP payment period. Any other move will be treated as a disconnect of the service and termination liability charges will apply.

(b) Changes in Length of ESP Period

Prior to the completion of the selected ESP period, the customer may elect to convert a new ESP period of the same or different length, subject to the following conditions:

- No credit toward the new payment period will be given for payments made under the original ESP arrangement.
- Nonrecurring charges (NRCs) will not be reapplied for existing service(s).
- If the new ESP period is shorter in length than the time remaining under the existing ESP, the change to the new ESP period constitutes a disconnect of the existing ESP service and termination liability charges apply.
- (X) Issued under authority of Special Permission No. 98-132 of the FCC.

(c) Renewal Options

- (1) At the expiration of an ESP period, the Telephone Company will automatically renew the service at the same ESP period unless the customer chooses to convert to a different ESP period, convert to month-to-month rates or discontinue service. All terms and conditions, including termination liabilities will apply to the new ESP period.
- (2) Conversion to a different ESP period will require the customer to submit a change ASR. Conversion to a different ESP period will be allowed without application of any nonrecurring charges.
- (3) Conversion to month-to-month rates will be treated as a disconnect of service and establishment of new service. If no other changes are ordered, no NRCs will apply.

(d) Notification of Discontinuance

An ASR for discontinuance of an ESP arrangement must be received by the Telephone Company at least thirty (30) days prior to actual disconnect of service. Monthly charges will apply for a period of thirty (30) days from the date the Telephone Company receives disconnect notification or until the requested disconnect date, whichever period is longer.

- The new service will be provided at the same customer location(s) as the discontinued service.
- The higher speed term commitment must be equal to or longer than (T)(X) the time remaining under the ESP.
- The total monthly rate of the new agreement is equal to or greater than the total monthly rate of the existing agreement period.
