9. NON-PUBLISHED TELEPHONE SERVICE

Non-Published Telephone Service provides that a customer's name and the telephone number assigned to him will be omitted or deleted from the Telephone Company's telephone directories and his telephone number will be omitted or deleted from its information records, subject to the provisions set forth below, upon receipt of an authorization, signed by the customer, in a form satisfactory to the Telephone Company.

9.01. REGULATIONS

9.01.01. Telephone Company Responsibility

A. Disclosure of Number

The Telephone Company will endeavor to prevent the disclosure of a non-published number, but shall not be liable should such number be divulged inadvertently. The Company will forward name, address, and ANI Spill (telephone number) information of non-published telephone service customers to other telephone companies providing switching services for the provision of 911 service or subdivisions as defined in Ohio Revised Code §4931.40 (D), that operate a public safety answering point, for inclusion in the data base of the network portion of a 911 system.

B. Recorded Announcements

The Telephone Company will furnish, upon request, the name of the customer to exchange telephone where such service is used to provide recorded announcements under the provision of this tariff.
